 -dence of his contemporary employers which could not be procured.

With reference to the Accountant General's Memo: ^{A. G. G.} No. 18 dated 21st February last, the District Judge has the honor to inform that the application for gratuity has been submitted on behalf of Lal Mahommed late peon of this Court under the impression that the several breaks in his services from April 1830 to 15th August 1851 would entail forfeiture of that part of his past services but this appears to be a mistake as from the nature of the breaks which were owing to the abolition of his appointments, his case seems to fall under one of the exceptions of Sec 55 Chapter 2 of the Civil Pension Code, for an Invalid Pension.

This reply has been delayed in the hope of obtaining some information from the applicant regarding his past services in the Revenue Department but the applicant is dead.
