On the 3rd July last he was granted leave on substitute for 15 days, instead of 10 days, for an extension which was granted him on the 10th July last. He was virtually overstayed the original leave for more than a month. This was brought to my notice by the then Dy. Collector on the 15th August 1894 and I directed in the enclosed copy of the docket No. 2453 dated 15th July that he should be struck off the Establishment from 1st July. The applicant, however, appeared on the 1st October requested that he might be recommended for pension, adding an extension of his absence that he was too ill to go out for a certificate. Having to long serve with consideration I directed, pending the sanction Government under G.O. No. 1454 dated 10th July 1894 that he should be considered to have been on leave without allowance from the 18th July to 30 September 1894. He appeared on the 1st October from which date the pension will take effect. The over payment on account of leave was shown by the Account Department from 18th to 31st July will be recovered from his pension...

It will be seen from the collector's remarks opposite to N^o 5 on the 3rd page of the application that on the 3rd July 1979, the applicant was granted leave on $\frac{1}{2}$ pay for 15 days, and that on expiration thereof, he applied for an extension of leave on plea of illness, which being refused for want of medical certificate, he overstayed the original leave. When this was brought to the collector's notice, he ordered that the applicant's leave should be struck off the extension and that he should be placed on full pay. He also ordered that the applicant should be granted leave on full pay for the period between the 3rd July 1979 and 1st August 1979. He also ordered that the applicant's overstay of the leave granted him in the foregoing facts, that the applicant's overstay of the leave granted him in July 1979 should not be treated as an act of insubordination in the preceding para. Other applicant may be granted the pecuniary recommended in the preceding para. Other as the interruption will have to be treated as disciplinary, disqualifying him for a return, all under the provisions of the Civil Service Code. He also ordered that section 65 of the Code.
