1. The opening page should be divided for entries in the following form:

(1) Name of Employé. (2) Caste or race. (3) Residence. (4) Father's name and residence. (5) Age. (6) Exact height by measurement. (7) Personal marks for identification. (8) Date on which page is filled up. (9) Signature of Employé. (10) Signature and designation of the head of the office.

The entries in this page should be renewed or re-attested at least every five years.

2. The remaining pages should be divided for entries in the following form:

(1) Name of appointment. (2) Whether substantive or acting, and whether permanent or temporary. (3) If acting, here state the substantive appointment. (4) Pay. (5) Acting allowance. (6) Date of commencement of appointment. (7) Signature of Employé. (8) Character of Employé. (9) Signature and designation of the immediate head of the Office. (10) Date of termination of appointment. (11) Reason of termination (such as promotion, transfer, dismissal, &c). (12) Signature of immediate head of the office.

No entries need be made in column 8 except when there is something especially good or bad to be recorded.

3. Leave of every description (except casual), every period of suspension from employment, and every other break of service, should be noted, with full detail of its duration, by an entry written across the page, and attested by the head of the office.

4. A service book is supplied, at his own cost, to every Employé on his first appointment.

5. The service book of an Employé is to be kept in the office in which he is serving, being transferred with him from office to office. It may be given up to the Employé if he resigns or is discharged without fault, an entry being first made therein to this effect.

6. Every Employé is charged with the duty of seeing that his service book is properly kept up, and that all erasures in it are properly attested. If the book is not carefully kept up, difficulties may arise as to verification of service, should the Employé afterwards apply for pension or gratuity.

7. Entries on pages 36 to end are to be made only by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts.

Section 70 Civil Pension Code.—An applicant for pension or gratuity, not being gazetted officer, should submit to the authority, whose duty it would be to fill up his appointment if vacant, his service book, and a statement of the following particulars :

(a).—The date of the Christian era on which the applicant was born. (b).—List of appointments, substantive and acting, held during the service for which pension or gratuity is claimed, showing, when any appointment was only an acting one, what substantive appointment was held at the same time. The dates of the beginning and end of each appointment should be stated, and the pay and acting allowance drawn in each. (c).—Dates of beginning and end of each period of leave. (d).—An explanation of each break in continuity of service.

APPLICATION FOR PENSION OR GRATUITY.

SECTION 69.—Every non-gazetted officer, with the exception of police officers whose pay does not exceed 20 rupees, and officers in the post office department and the inland customs department, whose pay does not exceed ten rupees, is required to keep a service book in which should be entered a statement of every step in his official life, each entry being attested at the time by the immediate head of the office in which he is serving. For officers of the inland customs department, whose pay does not exceed ten rupees, a roll must be kept such as is prescribed in Section 109 (a) for the police.

If the officer is himself at the head of an office (e.g., a deputy post-master or a sub-inspector of police), the attestation should be made by his immediate superior.

The entries in the Service Book and Pension application differ from the entries in the audit Registers of this Office in a few respects regarding the Acting appointments held by the applicant but as the entire period of the applicant's qualifying service has been verified from the Audit Registers of this Office and found to tally with the services recorded in the Service Book and pension application, the return of those documents for correction was considered unnecessary as only delaying the submission of the applicant's papers for the orders of Government.

The gratuity admissible to the applicant in lieu of notice under rule 2 Section 59 Civil Pension Code has been incorrectly included by the Superintending Engineer in the amount of gratuity admissible under Section 68(a) Civil Pension Code since it has been decided by Government in their Order Financial Department No. 675 dated 1st April 1880 that gratuity in lieu of notice is debitable to the Department in which the applicant was last employed (The Public Works Department in the present case) The Superintending Engineer has accordingly been requested to issue the necessary instructions to the Executive Engineer concerned to have all such claims included in future in the Divisional Salary Bill submitted to this Office for audit. The specific report and opinion of the Head of Office prescribed in the amended rule 6. Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code has not been obtained as the applicants pensionable Service has been duly verified from the audit registers of this Office.

Countersigned with the remark that any additional Gratuity which may be sanctioned to the applicant under the provisions of rule 2 Section 57 of the Civil Pension Code should be ordered to be debited to the Department in which the applicant was last employed.

With reference to para 5 of the remarks of the Examiner in the last Column on the 2nd page of the application it is observed that the rule quoted above contemplates that in all cases for additional gratuity the sanction of Government should invariably be obtained.

In accordance with rule 3rd of Section 87 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.

Remarks by Examiner, P. W. Accounts.

Verified from the Audit Registers of this Office and found Correct.

The applicant's services were dispensed with, owing to general Reductions in the Public Works Establishment.

The gratuity admissible under rule 2 Section 69 of the Civil Pension Code in lieu of notice, has been included by the Superintending Engineer, in the Amount of gratuity admissible under Section 98(a) of the Civil Pension Code but as it has been decided that the former is debitable to the department in which the Applicant was last employed [illegible] [illegible] salary bills submitted to this Office for Audit.

As the entire period of the applicant's Service has been Verified from the Audit Registers of this Office, the specific report and Opinion of the Head of Office prescribed in the amended Rule 6, Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code was considered unnecessary and has not been obtained.
