Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column on the right page of an open book. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. The text appears to be a letter or a formal document, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

The following report was received from the Taluk Visarippuzar Goundar, who reported no. 58 of Madras Government, and reported not to have rejoined his place on the expiration of his leave; & order was considered for his dismissal. But it was ordered that his whereabouts should be ascertained & his explanation should be recorded. Accordingly, his whereabouts being ascertained, the Tahsildar of Muzsavaram was written to, to have his deposition taken, & (the Tahsildar) he has recorded his plea that he had fallen sick & that delay was occasioned, before he was convalescent. It would have been the duty of the Visarippuzar Goundar, if if he had been really sick, to report himself to the Magistrate Tahsildar or the Deputy. He has failed in this point & his explanation is the only one.
Although dismissal would be the punishment ment for a man who did not bring his full leave for his duty, he has been excused & suspended for 3 months.
