PENSION DEPARTMENT.

26th January 1880, No. 66.

Pension.

Read the following paper:—

From E. J. SINKINSON, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort William, 23rd December 1879, No. 1984.

In acknowledging the receipt, with your endorsements, Nos. 751 and 752, dated 15th November 1879, of the statements of pensions and gratuities for the quarter ended 30th June 1879, I am directed to invite attention to entry No. 102 in Statement II (Invalid Pension—Superior Service), and to remark that on the assumption that Constable Putur Jetti elected under Section 121 (b) (1), to abide by Scale B, he is entitled to count service for pension from the 21st November 1865, that is, from the time when he completed the age of eighteen years. According to this calculation, the service of Putur Jetti on the date of his retirement (27th January 1879) amounts to thirteen years, two months, and six days, or one year, nine months, and twenty-six days short of the period of fifteen years, shown against his name in Column 8. I am therefore to request that it may be explained why Putur Jetti has been credited with a qualifying service of upwards of fifteen years.

2. I am to inquire, with reference to entry No. 9 in Statement VIII (Invalid Gratuities—Superior Service), whether P. Paddayya, who was apparently admitted into the service after the 20th January 1871, and after he had attained the age of twenty-five years, was incapacitated for service on account of old age or natural decay from advancing years.

3. I am also to point out, with reference to entry No. 10 of Statement VIII, that as Constable T. Lakshmayya's age on the date of retirement was twenty-five years, six months, and twelve days, he could not have rendered a qualifying service of eight years and eight days as shown in Column 8.

To the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance, dated Fort St. George, 26th January 1880, No. 66.

In reply to your office letter of the 23rd December last, No. 1984, I am directed to state that the cases of Putur Jetti and T. Lakshmayya referred to in it were disposed of under the Police Superannuation Fund Rules, which contain no restriction as to service before the age of eighteen years.

2. As regards the case of P. Paddayya also noticed therein, I am to state that this man entered the Government service in 1861, but that his service prior to the 30th June 1871 was rejected as he had not for that period subscribed to the Police Superannuation Fund.

Dept.t of Finance. Sir.

In acknowledging the receipt with your endorsements No. 751 and 752 dated 15th November 1879, of the statements of Pensions and Gratuities for the Quarter ended 30th June 1879, I am directed to invite attention to entry No 102 in statement II (Invalid-Pension-Superior service), and to remark that on the assumption that Constable Putur Jetti elected under section 121 (b) (1), to abide by scale B, he is entitled to count service for pension from the 21st November 1865, that is, from the time when he completed the age of 18 years. According to this calculation, the service of Putur Jetti on the date of his retirement (27th January 1879) amounts to 13 years 2 months and 6 days, or 1 year 9 months and 26 days, short of the period of 15 years, shown against his name in column 8. I am therefore to request that it may be explained why Putur Jetti has been credited with with a qualifying service of upwards of 15 years.

2. I am to enquire, with reference to entry No. 9 in statement VIII (Invalid Gratuities- Superior service) whether P. Paddayya, who was apparently admitted into the service after the 20th January 1871 and after he had attained the age of 25 years, was incapacitated for service on account of old age or natural decay from advancing years.

3 I am also to point out with reference to entry No. 10 of statement VIII that as constable T. Lakshmayya's age on the date of retirement was 25 years 6 months and 12 days he could not have rendered a qualifying service of 8 years and 8 days as shown in column 8.
