GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

5th July 1880, No. 670.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers:—

From F. C. PUCKLE, Esq., Deputy Superintendent, Madras Survey, in charge, to the Accountant-General, Fort St. George, dated Madras, 8th April 1880, No. 128-A.

In forwarding herewith the usual application* for compensation gratuity on behalf of Mr. John Clarke, late Draughtsman Examiner in Central Survey Office,

* Also service book and certificate of normal prospects of life.

I have the honor, in drawing your attention to the fact that Mr. Clarke is not considered to have the normal prospect of life, to recommend very strongly that the Government may be moved to pass the full gratuity earned by him in view of the fact that he has been in Government employment for close on fifteen years and has borne a very good character during that time, there being only one slight entry against him in his service book, dated twelve years back. He has a wife and six children.

2. I would add that Dr. Porter, who wrote the above certificate, did not make it a confidential report as laid down in Rule 5, Section 105, of the Civil Pension Code. His attention has been drawn to this point.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Certified that I have this day examined John Clarke, Draughtsman, Madras Survey Department, and find that he does not possess the normal prospects of life, suffering from enlarged liver as he does.

MADRAS,
3rd April 1880.

(Signed) A. PORTER, M.D.,
Surgeon, 4th District.

From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Superintendent, Madras Survey, dated 7th May 1880, No. A.D.K.—330.

With reference to your application for gratuity on behalf of Mr. John Clarke late, Draughtsman Examiner in Central Office, I have the honor to inform you that the final disposal of the application is delayed for want of Nos. 20 and 21:—

20.—Information as to the number of days the applicant absented himself without leave in January 1869, on account of which absence Rs. 3-14-6 were deducted from the amount of his pay for February 1869.

21.—Explanation how the applicant was considered eligible and therefore granted privilege leave for nineteen days in August 1869 when he was not entitled to it not having served without interruption for a period of eleven months from date of return to duty from the absence without leave referred to in the preceding paragraph—see Section 42 of the Civil Leave Code.

From F. C. PUCKLE, Esq., Deputy Superintendent, Madras Survey, in charge, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 15th May 1880, No. 182-M.

With reference to your letter, No. A.D.K.—330, of the 7th instant, calling for certain information in connection with the application for gratuity on behalf of late Draughtsman Examiner

Mr. Clarke, I have the honor to inform you that the Attendance Registers in this office show that the applicant was not absent in January 1869, and it is believed that the stoppage was for short work or some other cause.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No. A.D.J.—467.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for thirteen years, eight months, and eleven days, and that a compensation gratuity, not exceeding Rs. 600, equal to twelve months' pay, will be admissible under Sections 59 and 68 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, subject to the following remarks.

2. It will be seen from the accompanying confidential medical report and from the certificate furnished by the Surgeon, 4th District, as required by Rule 5 under Section 105 of the Civil Pension Code, that the applicant does not possess the normal prospects of life under the provisions of the rule quoted, the applicant should be granted a pension not exceeding Rs. 4-2-5 per mensem equal to that which the gratuity would purchase according to the scale in Table A, Appendix E, of the Code. But as the disposal of cases of the kind under report appears to have been left to the discretion of the Local Government, it rests with His Grace the Governor in Council to decide whether a gratuity may or may not be granted to the applicant as recommended by the Superintendent of Madras Survey in his letter, No. 128-A, dated the 8th April 1880, herewith transmitted—

See the Superintendent's subsequent remarks vide also the foot-note to the word "hardship" in the rule referred to above.

3. The particulars required by Rules 1 and 6 under Section 59 of the Code are given by the Deputy Superintendent, Revenue Survey, in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the 3rd page of the application.

4. In accordance with Rule 3-A of Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Civil Pension Code.

Offg. Deputy Accountant-General,

No. 39.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Adverting to the application for a compensation gratuity to Mr. J. Clarke, lately a Draughtsman Examiner in the Revenue Survey Department, and to the remark disallowing one year and twenty-two days' service as performed when the applicant was under twenty-two years of age, the undersigned is directed to inquire whether the case is not met by Section 20, Civil Pension Code, and the applicant entitled to count all his service.

OOTACAMUND,

To the Accountant-General.

From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 16th June 1880, No. J.A.E.—117.

Treasury Account Department.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 39, dated the 7th June 1880, inquiring whether, under the provisions of Section 20 of the Civil Pension Code, Mr. Clarke, late Draughtsman Examiner, Revenue Survey, Central Office, is not entitled to count for compensation gratuity the period of service rendered prior to attaining his twenty-second year, I have the honor to state that, when reporting upon the case, the fact was not overlooked that Mr. Clarke's service of one year and twenty-two days in qualifying grades, prior to the 12th July 1866, the date of his twenty-second birthday, could reckon as qualifying for a compensation gratuity. But as Mr. Clarke's service subsequent to that date amounted to more than twelve years, the period qualifying for the maximum amount of gratuity admissible under the provisions of Clause (a), Section 68 of the Civil Pension Code, it was not considered necessary to notice the period inserted by the Superintendent of Revenue Survey in the column headed "Period not reckoned as service."

2. The papers received with your memorandum under reply are herewith returned.

ORDER THEREON, 5th July 1880, No. 670.

Under Sections 59 and 68 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (4th Edition), His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. John Clarke, late Draughtsman Examiner, Revenue Survey, Central Office, a compensation gratuity of Rs. (600) six hundred, payable at Madras, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of fourteen years, nine months and two days.

 This man is well entitled to a patent of $1000 - He is a very considerable horse & will play to the tune of a barrel organ
 as he has in hand
 a very considerable supply of the same & is a first rate horse.

sum of 3) grass fall
 like a penny a piece of N. h. wood instead of a quantity of N. h. with N. h.
 in 8 bushels some fresh start. to be a landscape such as

 of N. h. is practically useless in many of the cases.

But the core identity
in terms of grand age
is exceptional cases
I don't think this is one of the kind of operation. L.A.
