3. The Service Book is herewith returned.

-turned for insertion of the reason of termination of the applicant's Service on the 31st December last. Reply

1. In the office copy of the annual return of 1st May 1854, it is clearly written Rama Row's name and not Beema Row's. It is therefore requested that the return sent to the Accountant General's office may be altered accordingly.

2. This individual was granted casual leave for a week from 8th September 1871. He having been taken ill during this leave overstayed 4 days from 15th to 18th September and in consequence he drew half pay on sick leave for those 4 days and this fact appears to have been omitted in in the leave statement and in the service Register. The omission has now been supplied.

3. The service Register, after inserting in it the cause of ter=mination of service, is herewith sent together with the Last pay Certificate, as therein requested.

4. The applicant resides at Salem.
