Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 419 dated 20th Ultimo I have the honor to submit my report as follows:

1 The applicant has no house or country name, other than that of his birth place, "Kanathirta" which has been mentioned. His father's name, Timappa, has been given fully. he had no other name or surname.

2 Of the period of $\overset{y.}{4}-\overset{m.}{7}-\overset{d.}{9}$ deducted as non-qualifying and "break", $\overset{y.}{4}-\overset{m.}{1}-\overset{d.}{9}$ is not to count for pension for the reasons stated in the statement; and $\overset{y.}{''}-\overset{m.}{5}-\overset{d.}{20}$ is the period of "break", or leave. A greater portion of this leave was taken, at intervals before the expiration of 6 years; and as leave so taken on account of private affairs, is not

"authorised leave" counting for pension under the Rule 1 Sec 53 of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition, and whether and what portion of it, was taken on account of sickness, cannot be ascertained now exactly - therefore it was included in the period of "break". The Applicant has more than 34 years of service, exclusive of that break -

3 The delay was unavoidable. The Court was adjourned for 2 months from 17th March; the information called for from other Courts regarding the Applicant's services in those Courts, was not received in time; Old Diaries of the late Assistant Judge and Principal Sadr Amins' Courts, had to be searched for and referred to, for verification of the entries in the statement of Services, as the Indents and Pay rolls of those Courts were found wanting pages & defective as to the dates of appointments, leave &c. Besides, there were several other similar statements of the servants employed in my Court and other Districts, to be revised, amended, and in some cases recast, all at one time -

4 The number of peons was reduced, under the new scale, from 9 to 3; and as the Applicant had more than 34 years service and the 3 retained have not any pensionable service, the service of the Applicant was dispensed with, under the arrangement sanctioned by the District Court - The saving resulting from the reduction of the number of peons is Rs 348 a year

5 The Service Book is herewith returned with insertion of the reason of termination of each appointment, & the last Pay Certificate -

I have the honor to be

Bira has served as a peon in the Aptt Court for some months; he was at first appointed "Acting on trial," & it was through mistake that he was not confirmed. I have always found him a very willing peon.

Bira the Daloyet of this Court served under me when I was Musf of Mangalore & since I took charge of this Court, I always found him careful in his duties & shall be glad to see him promoted.
