FROM THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE 1st Member Board of Revenue in charge of the Revenue Settlement Department.

Sir,

VIDE your Application for Pension / Gratuity on behalf of the persons named in the margin.

I have the honor to ~~The undersigned has~~ return the above draft applications, and to state that the services of the persons concerned, as therein detailed, for the period subsequent to 1st May 69 have been verified partly from the annual returns and partly from the Audit Registers on record in this Office, & found to be correct with the following exceptions; the differences should be explained when submitting the regular applications-

From the Audit Register of 1869 Rama Ayyar appears to have drawn Pay as Dy Inspector only up to 31st August, and not up to 27th September/69 as exhibited in the history of his service.

The amounts particularized below are shewn in the Audit Register of this Office as savings against the name of Chinnaswami Ayyar - If they were on account of absence on leave, the nature and duration of such absence should be stated-

Rs 4-15-6 in January 1869
6-4-0 " February/69.
