Pension Department.

With reference to paragraph 3 of the Proceedings of Government, No. 498, dated the 4th June 1880, drawing attention to the delay in the submission of this office report on the application for pension on behalf of Bala Rajanna, late a Head Warder, District Jail, Vizagapatam, I have the honor to state that at the time when the application in question was received there were on hand in the Pension Department of this office 104 fresh cases in addition to 15 partially disposed of. Further in the interval between 14th November 1879 and 27th February 1880, 163 preliminary applications were received from the Superintendent of Madras Survey and the Officer in charge of the Settlement Department under Rule 1, Section 83, of the Civil Pension Code. These cases and those of the Public Works Department (Bonus cases) which were also numerous called for prompt and special attention at the hands of the Pension Department.

2. Up to January last the Pension Verification and Report Branch of my Office consisted of only two permanent clerks. It was in that month temporarily strengthened by additional clerks to expedite the disposal of the numerous cases arising from the reduction of establishments in the Revenue Survey, Settlement, and the Public Works Departments.

3. I beg to state that the above explanation is also generally applicable to the case of D. Gangula, the delay in the disposal of which was remarked upon in paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of Government, No. 511, dated the 7th June 1880, Pension Department.

4. In conclusion I would add that I have always endeavoured to prevent unnecessary delay in the disposal of pension cases and that they will continue to receive special attention.
