Respected Sir.

I beg leave most humbly to submit to your honors most benign and compassionate consideration that my name in having on the 31st December 1879 been removed to the pension list. I most humbly crave that my service on a salary of Rs 10 per mensem from 1st July 1853 down to 15th October 1856 will be recommended to the most favourable consideration of Government for their passing orders to count my service during the aforesaid interval as elegible for pension. For I comm service under the most benign Government the 16th July 1846 on a salary of Rs 15 and continued to be so employed until the 30th 1853. When for fear of my post being abolis I agreed to revert to a reduced salary of Rs 10 and got promoted to Rs 11 on the 15th 1856. As this reversion to an inferior sal was
