Sir

With reference to Para 2 of this Office letter of advice dated 6th ultimo No 376/99. I have the honor to state that several Sakids addressed to Deputy Surveyor D Parthasarathy Naidu at the General Hospital have been returned to me from the Madras Post Office: but as the acquittance Roll for February has not yet come back from your Office I am not aware whether you have disbursed the Surveyor's Pay for that month or not.

2 His Pay for March is now being

being similarly sent to you for disbursement.

3 His transfer from Vepery Dispensary to the General Hospital was communicated to me officially but I have not heard of his discharge: and I think it would be more satisfactory in such protracted cases if the Medical Officers would grant sick leave and extend it month by month even while the Patient is under treatment.

The man was absent from his party & was believed to be sick but the officer in charge of the Gaol Hospital Madras reported that his treatment there ceased on the 9th July as by the 16th April he had not returned to that hospital & was struck off the roll from the 9th July. On the 25th April the applicant appeared at the headquarters of his party & produced a certificate from a Mr. Mac Apothecary at Madras stating that he had treated the applicant for fever

& the examination from the 9th July to the 23rd April.

The Asst. Surgeon Bhurey left at the head of the party & recently the man is not as he stated. Acting on this permission that Officer did accordingly the applicant on the 9th May, but in the meantime a breach of two months & 29 days had occurred (since the Removal) & thus the applicant loses 2-4-8 service.

This coupled with the subsequent admitted service and leave gives him 10 months pay & Rs 258.

His absence & certificate were both irregular but dismissal & forfeiture of 2 years service & fined a heavy punishment. under §57
