Statement of H. Kristian, ab. Lascar in the D.P.W. office, Dallas.

I know Goundapah as a Lascar in the in the D.P.W. from the time of Col. Mullins who was then D.P. Engr. Station, subsequent to this I know Goundapah as a Lascar under D.P. Greenaway. He served Mr. Mullins for about 7 years and Mr. Greenaway for about 1 1/2 years.
He then served Mr. A.S. Fisher for about 2 yrs.
On the abolition of the D.P. Engr. Office, Goundapah was posted under Mr. R. L. Smith, En. Engr. at Albany. He served him for about 3 yrs. He then served Mr. Fox for about 4 years. Again on the inter-division of the D.P. Engr. system, he was posted as a Lascar and remained for about 1 1/4 years. As Mr. R. L. Smith then the D.P. Engr. was of opinion that Goundapah became old he was transferred to the Engr. Station and is only a private firm. As I do not well recollect owing to lapse of time, I may not be correct as to the no. of years stated by me; but I affirm that Goundapah served the D.P.W. from the time of Mr. Mullins as D.P. Engr. Station.

To the best of my knowledge I affirm that Groundapple was within under supervision without employment from the time of Co.
Drumhairs to the time of Mr. Fox as Range Officer at Kodanahore. I don't know why he was transferred from the Impl. Service to the Imp. Storey and which is only a private firm as I was then transferred to the Best Coast Guard (from Buckingham Palace). 1862-1863
