The undersigned has the honor to enquire why the records are not forthcoming for the verification of the Applicant's service from 1st April 1853 to 31st January 1855 and of the several leaves taken by him and how in the absence of such records the entries in the Service Book could have been verified, and to request that

1. As regards the services not duly veri-fiable, the instructions contained in Rules 4 & 5 of Section 84 should be attended to.
2. The delay in the submission of this application should be accounted for and a few more marks for purposes of identification noted against it on the 1st page of the application.

That his application for Pension after receiving the usual verification left the Accountant General's office on the 16th June last.

That in consequence of no orders having as yet been received on it, his sufferings for the number of life are very great.

That the delay in receipt of orders is appalling.
He requests that your honour will be so good as to issue orders for a deduction of ground having expected that I may be released from the distress circumstance.
