Verified from the Report of the Civil Pay Master on the gratuity application submitted by the applicant on his services being discharged with on Reduction of Establishment in April 1863. A Gratuity of Rs. 210 was sanctioned to the applicant by Government in G.O. No. 364 dated 4 Dec 1863 but from the terms of this Office it appears clear that this amount was refunded by him; his services for these periods, have accordingly been classed as non-qualifying with reference to Section 106 Civil Pension Code.

Verified from the Civil Register of the Office and from a correct copy of the original which the applicant took the 13th July 1864 that was permitted by Government in their order No. 3178 dated 4 November 1864 (Copy herewith) to resume charge of these duties in the same appointment which he held prior to his 4th taking the 13th Dec 1862. From this fact it is presumed that it was not the intention of Government to consider his previous service as being vitiated, which how it accordingly been classed as qualifying the period while he was in the said appointment being treated as "under suspension."

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 4th November 1864.

No. 95. Read the following letter from Colonel A. J. M. BOILEAU, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, to Colonel C. A. ORR, R. E., Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Madras, 25th October 1864, No. 3,698:—

SIR,

1 Letter, dated 7th September 1864, with copy of Schedule.
1 Order of the High Court.

1. In accordance with paragraph 19, Chapter III of the Departmental Code, I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government the accompanying papers relative to the case of Mr. W. Rozario, the Record-keeper in my Office, who has lately passed through the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and who has been suspended from the service from the 13th July 1864, the date following that on which the notice of his application to the Court appeared in the "Fort Saint George Gazette."

2. The Schedule comprises 21 items, amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 1,057-8-0, of which the following is an analysis:—

	RS.	A.	P.
For goods purchased from 1857 to 1862	279	8	0
Money borrowed on Promissory Notes from 1857 to 1864 ...	750	0	0
House rent for four months in 1862	28	0	0

3. Of the first item, Rupees 202½ are stated to be the value of articles of clothing, &c., purchased by the Insolvent for himself, wife, and five children, while of the second, the Insolvent represents that Rupees 660 were borrowed to meet the claims of parties who sued him on account of friends for whom he had stood security, and who had failed to abide by their engagements.]

4. The remaining portion, Rupees 167, of these two items is said to be the value of articles of food obtained by the Insolvent from 1861 to 1863.

5. There is every reason to believe that it was originally Mr. Rozario's intention to have liquidated the whole of his liabilities. Having, however, embarrassed himself by becoming security for other people, and having been for some time past on the receipt of a small salary (Rupees 30 per month), added to which he was unemployed from 1st May 1863, the date of the abolition of the late Central Office, to December 1863, he found himself unable to do so, and to avoid being thrown into Jail he resorted to the Insolvent Court. His case was heard by the Chief Justice on the 10th August and 2nd September last, and from the Judge's order I find that no person having appeared to oppose, the Insolvent was discharged of all his debts.

6. There does not seem to have been any fraudulent conduct on the Insolvent's part, which certainly would have elicited the reprobation of the Judge, and as Mr. Rozario's embarrassments are in a great measure owing to liabilities contracted by being security for others and to his being without any fault of his own thrown out of office employ, I trust that his case will meet with the merciful consideration of Government, and that he will be permitted to resume his appointment in my Office, drawing salary in arrears from the 13th July 1864; as although under suspension from that date, yet, he has at his own request, and because his absence would have caused much inconvenience, been allowed to continue to discharge his duties, on the distinct understanding, however, that he was to be subject to such orders in reference to salary as Government might be pleased to issue.

7. Mr. Rozario bears a good character for diligence and general attention to his work.

No. 96. ORDER THEREON, 4th November 1864, No. 3,178.

Under the circumstances represented, and agreeably to Colonel Boileau's recommendation, the Government permit Mr. Rozario, lately passed through the Insolvent Court, to resume his duties in the Office of the Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, but cannot authorize the payment of his salary in arrears from the 13th July 1864, the date of his suspension.

Memo of the calculation of the Pension admissible to Mr. W. Rogers should the concession alluded to in Section 48 A (1) of the Civil Pension Code be extended to him (taking) into account the fact that he did not refund the gratuity of Rs 210/- received by him in 1864.

Date of birth - 24 August 1824

Age on date of retirement - 55

Value of pension of Rs 1 per mensem at the age of 55 = Rs 109-12-10 (vide Table A Appendix C, Civil Pension Code).

Pension admissible if he had refunded the gratuity = Rs 34-5-7 per mensem that is equal to one third of his average emoluments viz Rs 103-0-8 (for particulars see margin).

Average emoluments for last 5 years viz
from 17th January 1875
to 10th December 1875
at 100, from 11th December
1875 to 17th June 1877
at 110, from 18th June
1877 to 16th January
1880 at Rs 100 = Rs 6102-7-1

Value of Pension calculated according to Table A Appendix C, Civil Pension Code = Rs 3771-9-5.

Deducting from the above the sum of Rs 210 received by him, Mr. Rogers is entitled to a Pension, which the sum of Rs 3561-9-5 would accrue to him, that is a pension of Rs 32-6-11 per mensem.
