Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith translation of an Urzi addressed to me by Annasami Mudeliar, District Munsif of Tanjore applying for leave of absence for 10 days from the 13th Instant to visit Pondichery on urgent private affairs, and beg to recommend that his request may be complied with under the provisions of Clause II Section 20 of the revised Uncovenanted Service Absen Rules.

The Munsif having represented to me in person that in consequen of the death of his brother at Pondichery, his presence was urgently required at that place, I have permitted him to avail himself of the 10 days leave in anticipation of the High Court's sanction on the understanding, however, that the prescribed work of his Court be made up during the quarter without diminution.

A statement of the work performed by the Munsif from the commencement of the year is also herewith forwarded.

Venkatakrishna Rao, late [the no Sheristadar at the Huzur Head Clerk of his vernacular Office] requesting that the break in the continuity of his service viz. from 5th to 12th March 1877 may be viewed as service qualifying for pension, I have the honor to state that, as the above break is stated to be due to dismissal from his appointment as Minister (Diwan) to the Rajah of Venkatagiri, it cannot be treated as service counting for Pension. It may however be condoned by Government under the powers vested in them under the amended Section + 57(a) of the Civil Pension Code. If the

Sir,

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government a letter from the late Sheristadar of this District R. Venkatakristna Raw in which he states that he is about to apply for pension and requests that the period between his dismissal from the Dewanship by the Rajah of Venkatagiri and his resumption of the office of Sheristadar of this district, that is from the 5th to the 13th March 1877 may be allowed to count for pension.

2. When Venkatakristna Raw was made Deewan of Venkatagiri he retained his appointment as Sheristadar of Nellore. Balaji Raw acted for him - substantive pro. tem. Accordingly when Venkata krishna Raw ceased to be Deewan he reverted to his appointment as Sheristadar and there was no interval during which he was out of employ. Nevertheless as the Sheristadar's pay was drawn by Balaji Raw and Venkatakristna Raw did not apply for it there was an interval during which he ceased to draw pay.

3. I do not think this can be considered a break in service.

Sir,

Up to the end of ~~February~~ 1877 I drew my pay as Dewan of Venkatagiri and paid the pensionary Contribution. On the 5th of the following month I received a notice from the Rajah dispensing with my services from that date; and I reverted to my Sheristadar's post on the 13 Idem. As I have drawn no pay during the interval and it may be looked upon as a break in my service, I respectfully beg that you will be pleased to obtain the orders of Government to treat the said interval as counting for pension.

Bird who admitting the emergency of the occasion permitted me to proceed on leave at once to Pondicherry in anticipation of the sanction of the High Court and I accordingly did so. But the High Court since replied that they were unable to comply with the Civil Judge's application on my behalf as they had no power to grant leave of absence on private affairs retrospectively.

3. Copies of the Correspondence on the subject furnished by the District Judge of South Tanjore I enclose for the perusal and consideration of Government.

4. My services for upwards of 35 years are admittedly continuous and uninterrupted and not a day's leave has been obtained by me on any account during this long period. The Accountant General in fact does not point to any.

5 I request under these circumstances that Government will be graciously pleased to condone the said (17) days of absence under Section 57^x^ of the Civil Pension Code.

6. As to the remaining 40 days, some explanations are called for by the Accountant General which I am disposed directly to submit.
