This Officer joined here just a few days previous to myself and under circumstances of which I was perfectly ignorant till I suspended him on the 30th Sept 72 and then was directed to order his return to duty with the remarks that it was under "peculiar circumstances" the man had been re-entertained in the Department since his having been once dismissed from it; he has been far from giving me any satisfaction as an Overseer both before his suspension and since his return to duty although he would have borne with a great deal before ridolung myself of him, I have nothing to do with either do not know of the circumstances under which he has been re-entertained since dismissal; I suppose it to say that such was his conduct here that I applied either for him or myself to be removed, as he was worse than useless to me. This Overseer appears to have first entered the Department in 1868 and to have left it after some years service. I have a very poor opinion of him as an executive agent in his return, he has been invariably in arrears.
