Copy of Letter from the Examiner Public Works
Accounts to the Executive Engineer Simgam Project
No 482 P.E. dated 30 August 1881

With reference to your letter No 182 of 1st Instant, I have the honor to state that the Service Books of S Nagarrah and P Chittambara Modellar were forwarded to Government along with their gratuity applications, and are, it is thought, at present recorded in the Government Office.

2. It should be ascertained whether the men in question are desirous of refunding the gratuities sanctioned by Government and counting their former service for pension, or of retaining their gratuities and forfeiting their past services. On the receipt of a reply to this reference, the necessary steps will be taken by this Office for the return of the Service books.

3. A statement of the services of Rappo (late a petty lascar), as verified from the audit Registers of this Office, is herewith forwarded, no Service Book having been maintained for him in this Office.
