Sept 7/8
Note for Secretary
In putting up the S. O. request (which ought to have accompanied) I am very sorry to find that I was guilty of a blunder, as the S. O. quoted is not applicable to the man's case, as he was re-employed in Government and not local Fund, service - a point not stated by me at the time. The mistake is the more annoying, for, as noted, the very unusual course of issuing the order ^{being passed} before seen by you was taken. Because the case seemed so simple, I had been pending so long a time -

However it can now be easily rectified by the fresh draft order I have written below the former, quoting the correct S. O. which has happily come to hand since. That of C.

referred to is also put up with these papers - with a draft order therein for your approval.

Yours
