"Humbly Sheweth"

The humble Petition of Bezwada
Seetiah Naidu Govt. Pensioner
Residing at Door No. 40 Gangundy
Street Egmore Madras.

1 Your Petitioner served Government in the Revenue Survey department for a period of 18 years 2 months & 20 days

2 On 5th July 1877 being unwell your Petitioner applied for pension.

3 Instead of a third pension which your Petitioner fully expected to get the Government was pleased to grant him a Gratuity of Rs 300-0-0 having been led to an erroneous opinion about the Petitioner's age at the time of his entry into service by which a period of upwards of 4 years was curtailed out of his total service

(Rs. 25) and passed the bill for the balance Rs. 97-13-6 Copy of the amended bill hereto appended B.

8 Your Petitioner humbly submit that the retrenchment on account of his employment in temporary service which does not count for pension is unfair. Pensioners are allowed to serve in temporary appointment lasting not more than a year without loss of pension under para 3 Section 182 Page 99 of the Civil Pension Code – moreover your Petitioner had been precluded from receipt of his legitimate pension for nearly 45 months & that he had been put to considerable hardship & expenses in having had to fight out for his hard earned pension by presenting Memorials to Government of Madras, Government of India, and to the Secretary of State.

9 Your Petitioner therefore prays that the Government on due consideration of the facts set forth above be pleased to direct the amount of Rs. 36-7-11 retrenched by the Accountant General out of his pension bill to be disbursed to your Petitioner

Your Petitioner as in duty Bound shall ever pray.

I beg to remain
Most Honored Sir

& humble Servant

Sir,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 64 dated the 31st of August 1881, referring for report a Petition dated the 10th July 1881 from Bezwada Seeliah Nayadu, praying that Rs. 36-7-11 recovered from him on the ground of his total monthly emoluments from 26th November 1879 to 31st July 1880 having exceeded the pay of his former appointment, may now be refunded, I have the honor to state that, on enquiry, the Officer in charge of Irrigation Accounts informs me that the appointment in which the pensioner was employed, was bonafide temporary. There appears to be therefore no objection so far as this Office is concerned to the Local Government exercising retrospectively the powers conferred on them by Section 182 rule 3 of the Civil

Pension

Pension Code, in his case.—

2. The enclosures to the Endorsement under acknowledgment are herewith returned.
