PENSION DEPARTMENT.

No. 1070.

FROM THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF FORT ST. GEORGE, To THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SIR,

I am directed to forward, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India, the accompanying papers connected with the case of Keevalore Hyathkhan, late Peon, Sea Custom Office, Kottapatnam, Tanjore District, who has been granted an invalid gratuity of Rs. 36 for his inferior qualifying service of twenty-seven years, two months, and fourteen days.

2. The total actual service of the applicant amounted to thirty-five years, four months, and six days, but the first eight years, one month, and twenty-two days of the same does not count, as he was dismissed in 1850 for misconduct, in having, when a jail peon, given betel and nut to convicts in his charge. After his dismissal he was without employ for one year, four months, and twenty-five days, but on the 8th September 1851 he was readmitted in the public service and continued to serve till the 30th June 1860, when he was thrown out of employ in a revision of establishment, and remained out of employ for one year and ten months; after which he was re-entertained in the service on the 1st May 1862, and served till the 21st March 1881, when he was invalided.

3. As the man's dismissal was not considered a bar to his re-employment, and he was re-employed accordingly, the Governor in Council is of opinion that his non-employment for a period of one year, four months, and twenty-five days after his dismissal may be deemed a sufficient punishment for his misconduct.

4. Considering also that the fault was committed so far back as thirty-one years ago, since which time he has rendered good service to Government, and that he is now invalided owing to defective vision that will preclude him from earning any livelihood for himself, the Governor in Council would recommend that, for his long service of altogether thirty-five years, four months, and six days, the break caused by his dismissal may be condoned by the Government of India, and a pension of Rs. 3 per mensem, or half of his pay, may be granted to him in lieu of the petty gratuity of Rs. 36, which is all that this Government can sanction.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
17th October 1881.

I am directed to forward for the favorable consideration of the Govt. of India the accompanying papers connected with the case of Accualore Hyathkhan late Peon, ^{See} Custom Office, Kottapattam, Tanjore Dist. who has been granted an Invalid gratuity of Rs. 30 for his inferior qualifying service of 27 years 2 months and 14 days. — actual.

2 The total service of the applicant after including the period of suspension on 3 different occasions and the period he was without pay for an account of dissatisfaction and non-attendance is 27 years 2 months and 14 days. — actual.

amounted to 35 years 4 months and 6 days, but the first 8 years 1 month and 22 days of the same does not count as he was dismissed ^{in 1850} for misconduct, he having when a Jail House given betel and sent to the convict in his charge. After his dismissal he was without employ for 1 year 4 months and 25 days ^{but} ~~he was~~ on the 8th Sept. 1851 ^{he was} readmitted to the public service

As the man's case dismissal was not considered a bar to his re-employment, he was re-employed accordingly.

the Governor in Council is of opinion that his non-employment for a period of 1 year 4 months & 25 days after his dismissal may be deemed a sufficient punishment for his misconduct.

Considering also that the fault was committed so far back as 31 years ago, since which time, he has rendered good service to Govt, & that he is now invalided owing to defective vision that will preclude him from earning any livelihood for himself, the Governor in Council would recommend that for his long service of altogether 35 years 4 months &
