From the Accountant-General, dated 7th May 1881, No. A.D.J.-48.
Memorandum to the Registrar, High Court, Original Side, dated 23rd August 1881, No. 53.
From the Registrar, High Court, dated 26th August 1881, No. 233.

No. A.D.J.-255.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for fifteen years, seven months, and eight days, and that an invalid pension not exceeding Rs. 19-2-5 per mensem, equal to one-third average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, 5th Edition.

2. In respect of the furlough granted to the applicant in September 1879 in excess of the one year's furlough to which alone he was then entitled, the Registrar, in his letter, No. 233, dated the 26th August 1881, explains that the extension was sanctioned upon production of medical certificate, and that by some mistake the extra six months was shown as "furlough." Although the original certificate is not forthcoming, the fact that the applicant could have produced one, is proved by the certificate now granted by Mr. Dhanakoti Raju, M.D., which forms an enclosure to the Registrar's letter, No. 262, dated 14th September 1881, accompanying. When granting the extension, the Registrar should have commuted the entire period of the applicant's absence, from 1st September 1878, into leave on medical certificate in accordance with the provisions contained in Section 139 of the Civil Leave Code. That he did not do so appears to be due to an oversight. Should Government, however, be pleased to overlook this, the applicant may be regarded as having been on leave on medical certificate from 1st September 1878 to 29th February 1880 on an absentee allowance equal to half pay from the first fifteen months, and on one-fourth pay for the remaining period of his absence. But as he has already drawn a moiety of pay for this period, the difference between Rs. 30 and Rs. 15 or at Rs. 15 per mensem will need to be recovered from the arrears of any pension that may be sanctioned to him.

3. In accordance with Rule 3-A under Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.

Sir,

With reference to your Memorandum No. 53 of the 23rd instant - in explanation of the delay - I have the honor to inform you that Mr. Venkata Subbarao Moodelly is still absent from Madras, and states he is prevented by sickness from coming in to explain matters further.

So far as I can discover from papers in my office the year's furlough granted to Mr. Venkata Subbarao Moodelly on 1st September 1878 was, in the month of August 1879, extended for 6 months on Medical Certificate. It seems however that by some mistake the extra six months continued to appear as 'furlough'. I have been unable to find the Medical Certificate but have sent to the applicant for a duplicate.

I may however add that of my own personal knowledge Mr. Venkata Subbarao Moodelly was in so bad a state from the complaint which ultimately compelled him to retire that he was unfit to attend office.

to the endorsement by the Under Secretary to Government Pension Department. L. 62 dated the 31. August 1881 (to be substituted for this office L. 1881 dated May 1881)

No. 255 ADP certifies that qualifying service in Superior Grade has been duly proved for 15 years 7 months and 8 days, and that an annual pension not exceeding Rupees 19-2-5 per annum equal to $\frac{1}{3}$ and a gratuity allowance is admissible under Section 102 and 109 (b) of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.
In respect of the furlough granted to the applicant in September 1878 in excess of the one year furlough to which alone he was then entitled the Registrar in his letter No. 233 dated the 26 August 1881 explains that the extension was sanctioned upon production of a medical certificate and that by some mistake the rate of 6 months was shown as furlough. Although the original certificate is not forthcoming the fact that the applicant could have proved and is proved by the certificate now granted by the Dharmabati Raj in B. D. which forms an enclosure to the Registrar's letter No. 262 dated 14 September 1881. Accompanying when granting the extension, the Registrar should have committed the entire period of the applicant's absence from 1 September 1878 into leave on medical certificate in accordance with the provisions contained in Section 109 of the Civil Pension Code.
Shal.

That he did not do so, appears to be due to an oversight. I should have mentioned how ever he pleases to ever look this, the Appli-

1 September 1878 to 29 February 1880 on an

he has already drawn a moiety of pay granted Sanction for 18 months on 1/2 pay with effect from 13/1/1918 when on that date he was apparently under 16

The recommendation of the Registrar for the grant of a pension of Rs 19-2-6 in lieu of Rs 18-13-1 only is due, it is presumed, to the inclusion in the calculations of average emoluments of the unauthorized period of Longough vizt. from 1st September 1879 to 29th February 1880 which has been rejected from the calculation under the circumstances detailed above.
