From Lieut.-Colonel T. E. TENNANT, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Ootacamund, 20th September 1881, No. 180.

With reference to your official memorandum, No. 71, dated 13th September 1881, I have the honor to state that there is no class of warders called First-class Warders in the Jail Establishment. In District Jails, excepting the District Jail at Ootacamund,* the establishment consists of Head Warders and Warders on salaries of Rs. 9, 8, and 7 per mensem, and in Central Jails, the establishment consists of Chief Warders, Deputy Chief Warders, Head Warders, and Warders. I am not aware of any precedent treating such class of servants as "superior;" but I am of opinion that all prison officials drawing Rs. 15 and upwards should be treated as "superior."

2. As there is hardly any difference in the duties of the Warders which are alike excepting that Head Warders are looked upon as the chief officer of the Warder Establishment through whom all reports are communicated to the Jailor.

3. A class of Warders called Burmese-speaking Warders were specially appointed to each Central Jail on a salary of Rs. 15 per mensem (vide G.O., No. 1092, dated 1st June 1876).

ORDER THEREON, 22nd October 1881, No. 1083.

Under Section 102 and the proviso under Section 111 of the Civil Pension Code (Fifth Edition), the Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. John Muriel, late First-class Warder, Lunatic Asylum, Madras, an invalid gratuity of Rs. (24-8-0) twenty-four and Annas eight, equal to seven months' pay multiplied by the fraction $\frac{7}{10}$ ths, payable at Madras, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of seven years, ten months, and ten days.

SIR,

With reference to your Memo No 4555 of 29th July 1881 on letter No ^{A.D.K.} 81 of 20th July from the Accountant General, I have the honor to state that 3rd Class warder Appasawmy was absent from 8th April/81 & on his return on 6th June, he states that he had been sick & unable to come to his work.

2. There is nothing in this office to show how long warder Appasawmy was absent without leave in 1875, but as he was fined one day's pay he was probably absent one day.

3. After carefully reading Section 51(73) of the Civil Pension Code, I cannot see any reason why 1st Class warder Murali's service should be considered inferior. His duties are not

* There is a question in this case whether the service is "superior" or "inferior". A 3rd class Warden, as in the case put up with this, is clearly "inferior" under Section 89. "Sunday" are entered, would not the terms, if is submitted, cover a "Warden" even of the 1st class - who draws Rs 15. a month?
There being no precedents in the office for a similar case to this - an O. L. was sent to the S. J. of Jails for further information.
This reply is put up for orders. It will be seen that he recommends the service being treated as "superior",
