Form No. M 63 b - Inner Sheet.

Remarks by Examiner.	Replies by ~~Executive Engineer~~ the Deputy, Madras Works	How disposed of
X It is observed that the gratuity granted to Chulayatha wife of deceased Cooly David, that Inplayatha was not the lawful wife of Cooly David deceased, but in G.O. No. 402 dated 20 April 1881, was paid to Emassacannall mother of the deceased. Enquiries why the payment was made to the latter instead of to the former and whether the Superintendent had any written authority from the widow for his so doing.	X X X It was subsequently found out that Inplayatha was not the lawful wife of Cooly David deceased, but only a kept woman & consequently the gratuity was paid to Emassacannall the mother of the deceased on her producing a declaration made before the Presidency Magistrate. A copy of the declaration is herein enclosed for information.
