With reference to the Correspondence about the Peninsular Establishment, I have the honor to request that you will at once dispenze with the services of Paragonsawary Munday and Maximiliany Pelay, also any labor not taken over by the Marine Department.

I am uncertain whether or not these two clerks are entitled to Pension. I decline not as the Establishment on which they were employed was a temporary one.

Please report the final date of relief of each man whose services are dispensed with.
