son of Yammuna Kailam

His age is, by his own statement, forty seven years, and by appearance

If the latter date is proved to be correct necessary alterations should be made in the two accompanying documents and the amount of gratuity now entered opposite to No. 12 on the 1st page of the application altered into 36th equal to 5 months pay to which alone he would seem to be entitled, as the break in the service which extends over a period of one year, entails forfeiture of his post service, vide Sec. 95 and Rule 3 under No. 97 of the Civil Pension Code 5th Edition.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior} grades has been duly proved for 24 years 10 months and 22 days; and that a {superior} gratuity of Rs. 1024/- is admissible under Section 1024 of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified.

calculations have been duly verified.

I am accorded with Rule 4 under Section 130 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 65 of the Code.

It will be seen from the history of service that the applicant was without employment from 23rd July/61 to 9th April/62. The Director of Public Instruction in reply to this offered objection Memo No. 244¹⁸ dated 17th June/81 states that this was due to the applicant not having a room provided the office when it left Dohy to Lucknow in 1861. The break was therefore considered by this office to have been caused by resignation of appointment and the applicant allowed the benefit of counting his former service under Rule 3 Section 97 of the Code.
