Extract from the proceedings of the Civil Court of Tanjore
6 October 1871

Read Urge No. 115 submitted by the District Munsif of Tanjore.

The District Munsif says in this report that the Head Gurnasba of his court has received 1 Annas for filing a plaint in a small cause suit and that 2 batla persons have received each 2 Annas in excess of the regular batla for serving summones in the said suit.

The Civil Judge has no doubt in the matter that the said money was given as stated by him (Munsif). The evidence regarding that is quite clear and shows the said fact is a true one.
The account books of the Plaintiff in the said suit prove that the said money was paid. The said books were not produced for this fact but were produced simply to show the amounts due by the Defendant in that suit. It cannot be thought that unless the Plaintiff had really paid that money, he would have so entered it.

But the Civil Judge does not think that the Head Gumasah or the Peons asked for that money or that the money was received with any bad motive.

It clearly appears to the Civil Judge from the evidence and particularly from the Plaintiff's deposition that as one of the peons did not come for that money, it was sent to his house and that the said sums were given as the customary fees or expense.

If the Civil Judge was of another opinion, Criminal prosecution will certainly be ordered against these persons.

But even allowing these sums to be the customary fees or present, it is true that is a very common practice. This custom cannot for a moment be allowed. The Head Gumasah and the peons well knew that they were wrong in having received the money and that they were liable to punishment.

Although it is quite necessary to show that such customs are quite wrong and had been looked on as very unpleasant yet for the facts stated above the Civil Judge

Judge is not inclined to deal very seriously with the persons who have committed the mistake, and the Civil Judge believes that such indulgence will not be wrongly interpreted.

If any such thing occur any more, it will be very seriously dealt with. The Civil Judge believes that the warning that such practices should not be allowed will put a stop to them.

In this case, the Civil Judge cannot do any thing less than suspending the Head Gumasah to 3 months and the batla peons to 2 months.

Copy of this order should be sent to all Munsifs and they should bring it to the notice of all and affix it to the Court House.
