ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE

Superintendent, Madras Survey.

With reference to the application for gratuity on behalf of S. Cheugal, vadoya Mudali, late a hunchi in your establishment received with your letter No. 129 dated the 20th August 1881, I have the honour to enquire, on what grounds you have proposed the grant to the applicant of a gratuity of Rs. 30 when he does not appear to have lost his appointment on the 11th February 1881, in consequence of a reduction of establishment duly sanctioned by Government, as contemplated by Section 101 of the Civil Pension Code. Reading the definition of term "lay" together with Section 117 of the Code.

you will observe that the gratuity should have been calculated on the pay which the applicant was receiving immediately before his retirement. Should you consider that this mode of calculation would tantamount to some kind of punishment of which he is not deserving, it would seem to be, but fair, to calculate his gratuity on the average pay during the last 5 years of his service. vide rule 1 Section 117/a of the Civil Pension Code. -

The application is herewith returned for necessary correction and alteration.

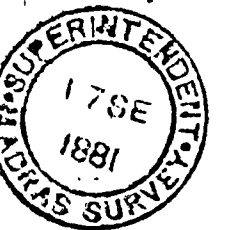

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Your obedient servant

SIR,

X herewith returned

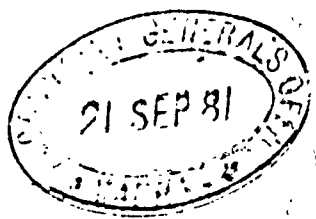

Referring to your letter No. ^{a.d. 127} 127 of the 16th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the appointment of Printer which I. Chengalwaraya Mudali held upto 11th February 1881 was abolished under G.O. dated the 3rd November 1879 No. 21 from the 12th idem, and that an application for Compensation gratuity would have been submitted on his behalf if he had not accepted a Post in the Dutch Section, as an additional man's services were required for a few months. CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

ADP. CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below) qualifying service in {inferior} grades has been duly proved for 9 years 8 months and 16 days; and that a ^{computation} {pension} {gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 30 ^{monthly pay} is admissible under Section 100(1)(a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. This case appears to be one similar to those disposed of only 10.10.81 dated 8th October 1881.

Although the applicants' last pay was Rs. 7 only per mensem yet the amount of his gratuity was calculated at the rate of Rs. 10 per mensem as required by Section 101 of the Code. This was the proper method the applicant was claiming when he was promoted of employment in the reduction of establishment on the 12th February 1881. Vide reply from the Dept. in a des. survey to this Office is No. 1444 dated 16th September 1881. The particulars required by rules 1 and 6 under Section 100 of the Code, are given by the Dept. of Madras survey in his remarks opposite to No. 4 on the 3rd page of this application.

In accordance with Rule 4 under Section 100 the attention of Government is respectfully submitted to Section 65 of the Code.
