GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

8th February 1881, No. 139.

Pension and Gratuities.

Read the following papers:—

- From the Chaplain of Vepery, dated 20th January 1880.
- " Officiating Minister in charge of St. Mary's Church, Masulipatam, dated 23rd December 1879.
- " Chaplain of St. Thomas' Mount, dated 12th February 1880.
- " " of St. John's Church, Trichinopoly, dated 28th November 1879.
- " Venerable the Archdeacon of Madras, dated 23rd and 30th January 1879 and 13th July 1880.
- " Accountant-General, dated 6th and 23rd September, 28th October, and 13th November 1880, Nos. A.D.J.—1128, 1153, 1154, 1285, 1286, 1324, and 1325.

ORDER THEREON, 8th February 1881, No. 139.

From the papers and correspondence noted in the margin it would appear that it was at one time the practice to allow retiring allowances to Church servants, and that the Government of India were prepared to admit it on the understanding that such servants were in this Presidency "required to devote their whole time to the duties of their offices."

G.O. (Pension Department), dated 22nd October 1868, No. 346.

Letter to Government of India, dated 26th October 1868, No. 490.

Letter from Government of India, dated 30th November 1868, No. 3230.

Letter to Government of India, dated 27th January 1869, No. 61.

Letter from Government of India, dated 27th February 1869, No. 1301.

2. The case then under reference was that of a Church clerk who could not be brought under that description, and the Government of India, having pointed out the fact, apparently concluded that all Church servants in this Presidency as elsewhere were on the same footing and therefore ineligible. Church servants were accordingly in the earlier editions of the Pension Code all excluded from pension.

3. In the Orders marginally noted the distinction between those who had and had not given their whole time to Government was pointed out, and the submission of applications in the case of those of the former who had been thrown out of employment by reduction of establishment was approved.

G.O. (Ecclesiastical), dated 16th October 1876, No. 263.

G.O. (Pension), dated 19th June 1877, No. 315.

4. The applications on behalf of the persons noted below have been submitted in pursuance of this Order, and the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant them the retiring allowances set opposite to their names. It is understood that their entire pay was defrayed from State revenues.

5. Copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Government of India.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

No. 296. It is certified that should Government be pleased to accept the portions of service not verified from office records on the strength of the affidavit and certificates attached to the last column of the 2nd page of the application qualifying service in superior grades may be said to have proved for 14 years and 25 days. An awarded pension not exceeding Rs. 3. 8. a per annum may be allowed under Sections 63 and 117 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, if the Government admit the applicant's statement that he devoted his whole time to the service of Government. Order G.O. No. 139 dated 8th February 1881.

In the 1st page of the application the applicant's removal is stated to be due to his duties of establishment which it is also noted on the 3rd page that the removal was made compulsory owing to his age. Since the conditions requisite for the grant of compensation pension have not been fulfilled, and since the applicant says at the time of retirement was 73 years of age, the Government has considered it proper to recommend him for the grant of an awarded pension. The minister explains the cause of non-submission of the service book in the 3rd page of the application.

An account with Rs. 4 under Section 130 the attention of Government is respectfully submitted to Section 65 of the Code.
