From the Supg Engr 7th Division of 18 Septr/65 No 101

Ag Accountant General of 1 May/66 No 2.

Order thereon 18th June 1866 No 228.

It is observed that R Ramasawmy Moodly's service previous to August 1854 cannot be reckoned as qualifying for pension owing to the break which then occurred. The Governor in Council accordingly resolves to grant to him a gratuity of Rs 160 equal to eight months pay under Clause I Section 9 of the revised Pension Rules.

The service in 1851 certainly does not Count & that of 1852 to 1854 is open to the gravest suspicion as even the Applicant cannot say that he was not dismissed as a punishment.

The later Service of less than 9 years admits of a grant of 8 months pay; if the 2 years spoken of could be reckoned the gratuity would be of 10 months pay. This case

The entries in the Pension Application and Service Book are incorrect and incomplete in regard to dates of Appointments &ca but as the entire period of the Applicant's Services has been verified partly from the records of this Office and partly from the Statement of the Applicant's Service received from the Accountant General Madras the return of the document for Correction and Completion was considered unnecessary as only delaying the submission of the Applicant's papers for the early orders of Government.
