FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SIR,

I am directed to submit, for the favorable consideration of the Government of India, the accompanying papers connected with the case of Arooloo Assary, late a Carpenter Maistry, Public Works Department, late Nilgiri Division, who has been granted a compensation gratuity of Rs. 180 for his service of seven years, eleven months, and six days.

2. Under Section 89 of the Civil Pension Code this man's service has been reckoned as "inferior," but the Government consider that his case should be treated exceptionally, and that his service as Carpenter Maistry should be treated as "superior" considering that he drew so high a salary as Rs. 60 a-month.

3. I am therefore directed to recommend the grant to him of a gratuity of Rs. 420, equal to seven months' pay, as in the similar case of W. Bootchiah the Government of India* were pleased to treat the

* Letter, dated 9th May 1873, No. 170. service as superior and granted him a pension of Rs. 13-5-4, equal to one-third of his average salary.

4. To avoid frequent references to the Government of India in similar cases, I am to request that a general rule may be laid down empowering the Local Government to treat the service of members of the Petty Establishment of the Public Works Department whose salaries may be more than Rs. 25 per mensem as superior.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

TO THE

Secretary to Government,
Pension Department,

Cotacamund.

SIR,

With reference to Mr. Under Secretary
Daniel's Memo No 68 dated the 7th of September 1881, requesting me to state whether in my opinion the service of Arooboo Assany, as Carpenter Inaishy, is superior or inferior, with special reference to Government Order No 300 dated the 5th June 1873, I have the honor to state that the Government of India when sanctioning the grant of a one third pension to Carpenter Inaishy Boothiah, the person referred to in the Government Order quoted above, appears to have intended that the grant should be considered a special one, and not of a kind that might be extended to all future similar cases.

Pensions however can only be granted under the Rules in the Code in force at the date of retirement and under these rules

a

a carpenter must be treated as an artificer of a class other than those specified in section 90 Rule 1, and therefore as an officer whose service is inferior. The high pay however which is allotted to the Carpenter whose case is under consideration seems to signal him out as an officer whose claim to a superior pension might be specially referred to the Government of India under the terms and spirit of section 91 (a) of the Civil Pension Code.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Yours obedient servant

I am directed to submit for the favorable consideration of the Govt of India the accompanying papers connected with the case of Arooboo Appary late a Carpenter Ministry Public Works Department, late Nilgiri Division, who has been granted a compensation gratuity of Rs 180 for his service of 7 years 11 months and 6 days.

2 Under section 89 of the Civil Pension Code this man's service has been reckoned as "inferior" but the Govt consider that his case should be treated exceptionally and that his

his service as Carpenter Maistry should be treated as "Superior" considering ~~the high salary~~ ^{that} he drew

~~excellent testimonial given~~ ~~him by Major Macartney~~ -

3 I am therefore directed to recommend the grant to him of a gratuity of Rs 420 equal to 7 months pay - as in the similar case of Mr.
Boothiah the Govt. of India were pleased to treat ~~his~~ ^{the} service as Superior and granted him a pension of Rs 13-5-4 equal to one third of his average salary.

4. To avoid frequent references
