I have this day carefully examined P. Valoo Moodaliar, aged about 33 years, Head Accountant, Local Fund Board Cuddapah, and consider him to be in very good health, free from all constitutional affection or bodily infirmity. The normal prospects of his life is, I believe, to be good and is fit for further active service. Since coming to this District a year ago, he has never been sick.

Sir,
In forwarding an application from P. Valoo Moody the present Ag Head Accountant of this Division, I have the honor to state that in my humble opinion, I think Rs 35 too small a salary for the duties & responsibilities of a Head Accountant, & request therefore you will kindly order an increase to his salary commensurate with the duties the man has to perform. I need not say he has given me every satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.
