GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

7th March 1878, No. 352.

Read the following paper:—

No. 51. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th February 1878, No. 393.

Read the following letter from H. SEWELL, Esq., Acting Collector of Trichinopoly, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 25th January 1878, No. 21:—

I HAVE the honor to enclose two letters from Mr. Moore, the Acting Head Assistant Collector, and to request that Virasami Pillai, at present Sub-Magistrate and Deputy Tahsildar of Manaparai, may be transferred to a post of Taluq Sheristadar.

2. My reasons are as follows:—For some months past there has been a large number of under-trial prisoners in the Manaparai Sub-Jail and a heavy accumulation of arrears principally in dacoity cases. The Sub-Magistrate's file was doubtless heavier than usual owing to famine, but there can be no excuse for his not having even commenced inquiry in four cases till three months after the prisoners were brought before him. His remissness in this way led, as I have said, to the Sub-Jail being overcrowded and indirectly to the escape of twenty under-trial prisoners, which took place on the 29th November 1877.

3. Again, Mr. Moore, on inquiry into this matter, found that the Sub-Magistrate's diary had not been written up from September 1st to December 5th. The Clerk, who was in charge of it, has been punished for his neglect of duty, but a grave share of blame attaches to the Sub-Magistrate for not having called for the diary and initialled it daily. As the Board will remember, I had occasion to suspend him for six months in 1876 for occupying the Local Fund Chuttrum to the exclusion of travellers.

4. I fully endorse Mr. Moore's opinion of the Sub-Magistrate as expressed in paragraph 4 of his second letter, viz., that he is honest but slow and not up to the work of a heavy division like that of Manaparai. He was before an Accountant in the Public Works Department, and would, I have no doubt, perform a Taluq Sheristadar's duty fairly, as his magisterial work in that capacity would be light.

5. I have, therefore, the honor to request that Virasami Pillai may be appointed Sheristadar of Perambalore Taluq, and that S. Narainasami Naidu, at present Sheristadar of Perambalore Taluq, may be appointed Sub-Magistrate of Manaparai. The Sheristadar's pay is Rupees 60 and the Sub-Magistrate's Rupees 70 per mensem. S. Narainasami Naidu is an old servant and has been exempted from passing the necessary test in Board's Proceedings, No. 4,378, dated 13th July 1864. He has been in charge of a Tahsildar's post on several occasions. He holds 3rd-class Magistrate's powers.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From L. MOORE, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Magistrate, to H. SEWELL, Esq., Acting District Magistrate of Trichinopoly, dated Manaparai, 5th December 1877, No. 103.

I HAVE the honor to inform you that, on going through the Manaparai Sub-Magistrate's records this morning with the view of ascertaining the reasons of there being so many cases undisposed of on his file, I called for his magisterial diary. After considerable delay it was brought, and I then found that no entries had been made in it since September 1st. On the Magisterial Clerk, Muthusami Pillai, being sent for and asked for explanation, he first of all stated that the remainder of the diary had been entered in another book. When asked to produce it he stated that the Clerk, who had the key of the box in which it was, could not be found in his house, and that he, therefore, was unable to get the book. When questioned further he acknowledged that this story was all untrue, and that the diary had never been entered up since September 1st. His only excuse was that he had no time to do the work. This is, of course, untrue. The Sub-Magistrate has been recently frequently absent from head-quarters, leaving this Clerk behind, and on these days he could easily have written up the diary, or he could have come to the office in the early morning and done so.

2. As this Clerk's conduct appears to me to deserve severe notice, I have degraded him to the post of Chuttrum Gumastah in the office of the Kulittalai Tahsildar on Rupees 6, and have appointed Muttiya Pillai, a passed candidate, who now holds that post, in his place. I request that these appointments may be approved of.

3. I have called on the Sub-Magistrate for explanation as to his neglecting to see that his diary was written up and to initial it every day, and also as to the great delay which he has allowed to take place in the disposal of some of the cases on his file. I find that the inquiry into three dacoities brought before him in September last has not even been commenced yet. As soon as his explanation is received I shall report on the subject to you.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) H. SEWELL,
Acting District Magistrate.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From L. MOORE, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Magistrate, to H. SEWELL, Esq., Acting District Magistrate of Trichinopoly, dated 20th December 1877, No. 108.

I HAVE the honor to enclose the explanation of the Manaparai Sub-Magistrate, which I stated in paragraph 6 of my letter, No. 103, of the 5th instant, that I had called on him for.

2. The Sub-Magistrate's explanation of his neglect to see that his diary was written up from day to day and to initial it seems to me to be most unsatisfactory. It is in fact no explanation at all. He states that the Magisterial Clerk had, on the 13th instant, or eight days after I discovered his delinquency, written up all the arrears; and this, in itself, shows that he had plenty of time to do so before if he had chosen.

3. The Sub-Magistrate's explanation for not having commenced the inquiry into the Karappatti, Menavelli, Aramankulam, and Adigaram dacoities for more than three months after the dates on which they were brought before him also appears to me to be unsatisfactory. There is, however, no doubt that he has had a large amount of work to do of late as the statements (forwarded herewith) which I directed him to prepare showing the cases actually concluded by him in September, October, and November last prove.

4. My own opinion has been for a long time past that the Sub-Magistrate is not fit for his present post. I believe he is honest; at all events I have never discovered anything to prove that he is not. He is certainly not idle; in fact I should call him a hardworking man, but he is by no means intelligent and very slow. Manaparai requires a strong Magistrate who can hold his own with the Police and not allow himself to be cowed by them as, I fear, is the case with Virasami.

5. With these remarks I must leave the matter to you to dispose of. I have no wish to see Virasami severely punished; but, as long as he is Magistrate at Manaparai, I shall despair of getting the division into good order.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) H. SEWELL,
Acting Collector and Magistrate.
