Sir,
With reference to your endorsement No 1070 dated 5th Instant on the Acctt General's letter No 140/303 I have the honor to furnish the following information -

2 As regards item No 20 therein pointed out I beg to state that I am not in possession of the office copy of the nominal list of peons sent with the Annual D statement of Party No II for 1875. But a reference was made to the Pay Bills of March & April 1875, in which I am unable to trace out the name of peons

peon P. Annayan; but the name of Marudamalaichetty appears in both the bills as Madurai, who acts for Mavalpi's post in lieu of one Varadan & so his name runs in the Pay bills thus: "Varadan Ag Madurai". I understand that Madurai is the person who is now called as Marudamalaichetty.

3 The information required in item 17 may be entered in Col 4 of the page 3 of the gratuity application as under.

" Reemployment under "Rule 1 cannot be found in "consequence of the abolition "of the Party. With reference "to Rule 6 that his monthly salary "minus the proposed gratuity "of Rs 18-0-0 (3 months' pay) is "a saving to Government."

This entry can only be made in in the gratuity application of Marudamalaichetty & is accordingly made against the prescribed column. In the peon Annayan's gratuity application this information is not supplied inasmuch as his name cannot be traced out in the Pay bills in question and his gratuity will be affected in consequence.

Vide ~~your~~ Applications for ~~Pension~~ Gratuities on behalf of the late Masalji Marudamalai Chetti and Revenue Peon Annaya Nayaker, of the No II Settlement Party.

The undersigned has the honor to observe, that the entry in the column "How verified" in the 2nd page of the application on behalf of Annayan, indicates that the service from 1st October 1874 to 31st December 1879 was verified from "the Office pay bills" whereas the Deputy Director of the No II Settlement Party in his letter to the Officer in charge of the Revenue Settlement Department No 139 of the 8th May 1880, states that the applicant's name is not traceable in the pay bills of March and April 1875 and that as "his gratuity will be affected in consequence", the information required by rule 6 under Section 59 cannot be supplied. It

act for one Sayad Akbar from 5th January 1874 is requested that full explanation may be furnished regarding this and the whole service reverified with a view to ascertaining the exact date from which the service should be reckoned.

The exact period during which Marudamalai Chetti was acting for Varadan should also be distinctly pointed out and explanation afforded of the circumstances under which the acting service has been viewed as qualifying. Further was the appointment fully vacant during the period no other person than the applicant counting service in or retaining lien on it.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. $\frac{1935}{287}$ dated the 5th Instant, communicating copy of the Accountant General's letter No. $\frac{A D H}{439}$ dated 7th July last, and in continuation of my letter No. 139 dated 8th May, I have the honor to report as follows:—

The services of Peon Annayan and Masalji Marudaimalai are carefully reverified with reference to the Office copies of the Pay bills of Party No. 2 - that are forthcoming from the records of that Party. The history of their services runs thus—

2 — Peon Annayan has been appointed to act for one Sayad Akbar from 5th January 1874

1874 till 16th February 1876. On the 17th he was confirmed in the appointment. As long as he was acting his name appears as "Annappan" and as "Annayan" since confirmed without any remark to that effect.

3 Masalji Marudaimalai has been appointed to act from 15th October 1874 for one Varadan who appears to have absented from 16th July 1874 and for whom one Perumal was acting till 14th October 1874. From December 1875 the name Varadan disappears and the name Marudaimalai stands alone in the list against the appropriate number without any remark. Hence the presumption that Marudamalai was confirmed from that period. Until June 1875 his name runs as Marudai while from July that year it runs as Marudaimalai. From what Bheema Row, a long standing and experienced Head Classifier of the Party states, I understand that Peon Annayan and Masalji Marudaimalai were Annappan and Marudai respectively who have been appointed acting. As Syad Akbar and Varadan never returned to duty excepting that they nominally retained lien on their appointment for months together and as Annayan and Marudaimalai were confirmed in the posts in which they were acting, the acting service of the latter has been viewed, it seems, as qualifying. Since the permanent incumbents had had no pension nor gratuity at all, the acting men have perhaps been allowed the benefit of their acting service.

In the office copy of the nominal roll of Peons attached to the annual D Statement of the year 1875, there appears the names of Permanent incumbents - "Peon Sayad Akbar" and "Masalji Varadan". As the names of acting incumbents are instructed to be inserted only from the last year, it is justifiable that the names of Permanent incumbents are only traceable in the list of the year under reference. The entries against No 4 page 3 of both the applications are, under these circumstances, correct.

Copy to the Accountant General with reference to his letter No A.D.H./439 dated 7th Ultimo which together with the Gratuity rolls and service books therewith received are returned.

As none but the applicants count service in their respective acting appointments in which they were subsequently confirmed owing to the permanent incumbents not having returned to duty (Vide para 3 above), they were recommended for the gratuity to which they are entitled.
