1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant.

C. S. G. Barkham was a very good character & a very good character & a very good character.

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation.

He received all the consideration which Government can give him.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX.

4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it.

5. Any other remarks.

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

C. S. G. Barkham was a very good character & a very good character & a very good character. The salary he received tho' only £12 has been a great help to him & he deserves all the consideration which Government can give him.

No suitable appointment was available. The salary is £12 per annum. The applicant deserves a gratuity because he is getting on well & did not expect to be "out" at the end of the year.

A. C. Taylor, Chaplain of Weymouth.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

SIGNATURE.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 7 years and 7 months, but that no retiring allowance would be payable to the applicant as the whole time was not returned for the full service (Wills para 3 of the Wills of the Archbishop's letter to Government, 17g dated the 23rd January 1799) and as the remuneration of the Church Clerk & other Church servants is from the list of examples under section 9 of the Civil Pension Act 1877, the provisions of which were enforced at the time of the applicant's retirement from the service in 1877, did not come into operation until 23rd April 1799, the date of publication of the 4th Edition.

The submission of the application would seem to be in accordance with G.O. No 315 dated the 19th June 1877.

No service book has apparently been maintained on behalf of the applicant. The same, it is presumed, is the same as that stated in the Wills of the Archbishop's letter embodied in G.O. No 2879 A dated the 13th December 1877 (Financial Department).
