Aged 58..

I have the honor to enclose the accom-panying application for Gratuity on behalf of the individual marginally named and to request you will, with reference to para 2 of the Examiner's Remarks (herewith enclosed) take into consideration the length of this man's service (upwards of 30 years) although only designated as temporary to me then 5 years back. and be good enough to consider the period of ^{10th Feb} days (1st to 10th August 1877) during which time, he is reported to have been absent without leave. but which allegation he denies. as casual or privilege leave. so that he may be allowed to count the whole time of his permanent service viz from 3rd October 1874 and thus become eligible for the gratuity.

Certified that qualifying service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 2 years 5 months and 21 days and that a superannuation gratuity not exceeding Rs 2-10-8 is admissible under Section 68(a). The terms of the proviso under Section 70 of the Civil Pension Code.

Should Government however be pleased to commute the applicants' absence without leave from 1st to 9th August 1877 into leave without allowances under rule 6 to Section 52 of the Civil Pension Code, he will have rendered a qualifying service of 5 years 3 months and (19) nineteen days, and a superannuation gratuity not exceeding Rs 16-10-8 will then be admissible under Section 68(a) and the terms of the proviso under Section 70 of the Civil Pension Code.

The superannuation gratuity recommended in para 2 if granted to the Applicant is debitable to the Local Funds and General Revenue according to the rule of proportion. But as the gratuity debitable to Local Funds is less than one fourth of the entire gratuity, no division need be made under rule I to Section 40 of the Civil Pension Code.

The calculations have been duly verified.

(4) The Applicants' services were dispensed with on 31st June any (1885, proving to his being) unfit for further service through old age.

(5) The entries in the 'Gratuity Application' and 'Service Book' are incorrect in regard to a leave without leave 800, but as the entire period of the Applicants' pensionable service has been duly verified from the records of this Office, the return of the documents to the Superintendent Engineer for Corrections and Retransmissions was considered unnecessary (as only delaying the submission of the papers for the action of Government.
