No. 92. From Major D H. TRAIL, R.E., Officiating Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 21st July 1880, No. 70 W.

Your endorsement, No. 183, dated 22nd June 1880, on the petition of Mr. W. A. Laughlin, which is herewith returned.

2. I enclose a memorandum in the second column of which will be found my remarks recorded in juxta-position to the several requests of the applicant. Mr. Laughlin's pension papers are ready for submission to Government in the Pension Department for final orders, and now only await orders on this petition.

MEMORANDUM showing claims preferred by Mr. Laughlin in his Memorial to His Grace the Governor of Madras, and Examiner's remarks with reference thereto (to accompany Examiner of Public Works Accounts letter).

No.	Claims preferred by Mr. Laughlin.	Remarks by Examiner of Public Works Accounts.	Remarks and Orders of Local Government.
1	That his service in the Army Clothing Agency Department as an Accountant on Rs. 75 per mensem for a period of 10 months (should be 11 months); 1st June 1862 to 31st March 1863 (should be 30th April 1863), may be reckoned towards pension, as he lost his appointment through no fault of his own, but owing to a reclassification of the Office Establishment.	Service as Indent Examiner and Tabulator for the period in question has been duly verified from the records of the office of Superintendent, Army Clothing. Mr. Laughlin's services were dispensed with on a reclassification of that Office Establishment with reference to Proceedings of Government, No. 1,372, dated 27th April 1863. The period, however, does not appear admissible towards pension or gratuity as Mr. Laughlin was subsequently dismissed from the Government service (vide next remark) which dismissal entailed a forfeiture of his past services with reference to Section 56, Civil Pension Code.	No. 93. ORDER THEREON, 30th August 1880, No. 2,052 W. 1. The period in question cannot be counted towards pension.

| 2 That his service from September 1863 to 17th May 1865 (should be 4th April 1865, as he was placed under suspension on that date) as an Accountant in the office of the Government Press, may be allowed to count towards pension, and that his removal, which was ordered in G.O., Public Department, dated 17th May 1865, on account of his having availed himself of the Insolvent Act, may not be considered as prejudicing his past services, as in Order No. 1,810 of 1865 it was declared that "the Government have no objection to the re-employment of Mr. Laughlin in the public service." This latter request Mr. Laughlin bases on Rule II, Section 56, Civil Pension Code. | The circumstances which led to the dismissal of Mr. Laughlin from his appointment as Accountant, Government Press, are fully detailed in the correspondence printed with Public Works Department G.Os., Nos. 305 and 513, dated, respectively, 22nd March 1865 and 17th May 1865 (copies put up), and therefore need not be recapitulated here. Mr. Laughlin was dismissed on the report of Acting Supervisor, Government Press (vide G.O., No. 513, quoted above), and as the subsequent order (No. 1,810 of 1865) referred to by Mr. Laughlin did not "on revision or appeal" reverse the previous order, but merely granted the request of the applicant to be "declared not to be disqualified for employment in the Government service in another department," the dismissal clearly entailed forfeiture of all past services under Section 56, Civil Pension Code, Rule II of this section, under which Mr. Laughlin claims his past service, is inapplicable to the case. It will be observed from the correspondence printed in the two Government orders referred to above that Mr. Laughlin's insolvency did not arise from "unforeseen misfortunes, or from circumstances over which he could exercise no control" (Public Works Department Code, Chapter IV, paragraph 550), but from causes for which he was not considered blameless. | 2. This period may be counted as service towards pension. |

| 3 That his service for a period of nine months, viz, from 1st September 1865 to May 1865 as a temporary Accountant in the office of Controller of Public Works Accounts, may be allowed to count as service towards pension, as he was taken on the permanent establishment of the same office in continuation of his temporary service. this temporary service is exactly similar to the case of A. Streenavasaloo Naidu, which has already been referred for orders.—Vide this office No. 66 W., dated 16th July 1880. | This appears admissible under Rule I, Section 27, of the Civil Pension Code. Mr. Laughlin was on the temporary establishment of this office on a salary of Rs. 40 per mensem, and on a revised scale of permanent establishment having been sanctioned by the Government of India he was provided for on the same pay without intermission in his service. Mr. Laughlin's case as regards | 3. This period may be counted as service towards pension. |

4	That he may be considered and permitted to retire as a graded Accountant and be allowed the concessions specially sanctioned in Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Resolution, No. 2,079, dated 31st July 1879, as he was virtually an Accountant throughout the whole course of his service under Government though not actually graded.	Although Mr. Laughlin's name was included in the list of employés of this office who were recommended for exemption from the entrance test of the Accounts Branch, and which recommendation was subsequently acceded to by the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, Mr. Laughlin was never graded or regularly brought into the Accountant's establishment of this Presidency, and consequently is not entitled to the concessions of Government of India Resolution, No. 2,079, dated 31st July 1879.	4. The Government concur with the Examiner, the case cannot be treated exceptionally.
5	That he be allowed house-rent at Rs. 10 per mensem for about 15 months, or in all Rs. 150.	This question as a general one has already been fully discussed, and final orders of both this Government and the Government of India already passed thereon.— Vide letter to the Government of India communicated with G.O., No. 323 W., dated 12th February 1880. There is nothing exceptional in the case of Mr. Laughlin to justify its being re-opened.	5. Do. do.
6	That he be allowed Presidency allowance at Rs. 30 per mensem for about 12 months, or in all Rs. 360.	Both of these requests are inadmissible. House-rent and Presidency allowance are claimed at rates admissible to an Accountant, 4th grade—Madras Public Works Code, paragraphs 33 and 37. The former from date of Accountant-General's (Public Works Department) letter according his sanction to the exemption from the entrance test examination, and the latter from date on which the rule about the grant of Presidency allowance came into force.	6. this Office and found correct. The Applicants' services for the period though based on the temporary establishment have been treated as qualifying with reference to the order of government conveyed in G.O. No. 2052 N. dated 30th August 1902 on the similar case of Mr. P. A. Langhorne who was employed on the same establishment. In that case services were added to count for pension.

Verified from the Audit Register of this Office and found correct.

The applicants' services were dispensed with on the afternoon of the 5th June 1888 owing to General Reduction of Establishment in the Account Branch, Public Works Department.

* In the Public Works Department, periods of service should be verified by the Examiner P. W. Accounts, Section 84 Rule 2. If the service claimed cannot be wholly verified from the records of the Accounts Office, reference should be made to the Heads of the Offices in which the applicant states he served during the period in doubt. Section 84 Rule 4, and if verification from this source be not practicable, the applicant must furnish an affidavit on plain paper accompanied by such collateral evidence as may be procurable, e.g., official certificates and the evidence of contemporary employees, Section 84 Rule 5. If the latter course be adopted the authority receiving the application must invariably record his own opinion whether the service claimed has been established and should be admitted or not. Section 84 Rule 6. The Last Pay Certificate, prescribed in Section 83, should always accompany the Final Pension Application.

Remarks by Head of Office.

1. As to character and past conduct of applicant. Good.

2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. Nil.

3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by applicant, See Chapter XX Nil.

4. Explanation under Section 59, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it

5. Any other remarks. Recommended for a pension of Rs. 10-4-2 per mensem instead of a gratuity as the period of deficiency in the applicant's qualifying service is less than 3 months and it is within the competency of the Head of Office to endorse it with reference to Civil Pension Code Section 59. H. G. - v. -

6. Specific opinion of Head of Office whether the service claimed is established and should be admitted or not. (See Rule 6 under Section 84.) Has established a claim and can be admitted.
