Suspension Absent without leave

REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant. Said to have been tolerably good. The Collector knows nothing personally of the man. Suspended for having delayed the transmission to the Treasury by Collector of a certain Emergent Revenue Return (vide translation of Stakid No 449 dated 12 Feb, 1897 enclosed).
2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation. Nil
3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX. Nil
4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it. When an man breaks in the Applicant's service. Of these the first 2 were owing to reduction of established amount and do not count against him. The Sub-collector states that as the salary records of Confutaram
5. Any other remarks.

for 1889 and 1868 were destroyed, it is not possible for him to ascertain under what circumstances the applicant was allowed to be absent without leave in these 2 years. In reference to the absence in 1895 no records are forthcoming and it is probable that there were none for 1889 and 1868 also. In regard to the absence of 7 days after suspension as well as to similar absence on the 3 previous occasions the applicant states that he was ill and that as he could not obtain leave he was obliged to absent himself without permission (vide translation of his statement).
 2. It was until recently not uncommon for lower subordinates on leave to take an extension themselves trusting to orders being subsequently given in their favour with retrospective effect. The applicant absents himself without authority on 4 several occasions. Under Section 17 Supplement of the Civil Service Code (Page 252) absence without leave involves loss of appointment which causes an interruption in duty, thereby entailing forfeiture of part service. (Vide Section 55 Pension Code page 28) Getting aside therefore the services rendered prior to the absence without leave, the applicant's net service amounts only to 1 year 10 months 13 days. He is therefore under the circumstances entitled to no gratuity, unless Government see fit to condone the breaks in continuation of the last year in which he was formerly located after.

3. The original application from the sub-collector was received in this office on the 7th August 1899 and no less than 4 references had to be made. Hence complete information was available only on the 23rd ultimo.

Certified that should Government, after perusal of the accompanying Copy of the applicant's statement before the Subaltern of Conjeeveram and the Collector's remarks thereon, opposite to No 5 in the 3^d page of the application, be pleased with reference to rule 6 under Section 52 of the Civil Pension Code, to condone the break caused by the applicant's absence without leave on the different occasions noted in the column of remarks in the 2^d page of the application, Qualifying service in superior grades will amount to 29 years 6 months and 4 days; and that an Invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs 36 ~~or~~ equal to 6 months' pay will be admissible under Section 61 and 76 (a) of the Civil Pension Code. Otherwise no retiring allowance would be admissible as the service is not equivalent to the ~~retiring allowance~~ amount to only 1 year 10 months and 12 days.

The delay of nearly 10 months in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his remarks under No 5 in the 3^d page of the application.

In accordance with rule 3 of Section 57, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.
