inform you that on August 20, 1853, S.
Narasimhaswamy was suspended for one year, after the expiration of which, he was reinstated in his post (vide accompanying Sakeri no 289). Subsequently, i.e. on November 7, 1854, the arrangement was altered and he was transferred to a new post which was classed temporary from 1840, the latest period which the records of the Factory could show till 1857 January 11 when he was made the establishment. But the collector was not inclined to pay him from 20th August 1854 to 31st October 1854, though he worked during that period which was also reckoned as that of suspension.

2. His service up to January 11, 1857, has been reckoned as qualifying for gratuity, he — having been reinstated as per Sakeds No 289 & 320 enclosed. even if this is excluded as not qualifying, his uninterrupted service from January 12, 1857 to March 31, 1879, which is nearly of 22 years entitles him to a gratuity which he has applied for.

3. Copies of the correspondence in connection with the applicant's suspension on both occasions are herewith sent together with his last pay certificate.
