No entry need be made in this Column except when there is any thing either good or bad to be recorded. Suspensions should be noted here when the order of suspension is passed. I wish to place on record the expression of the high opinion I entertain of the great intelligence and the marked zeal, which has for so many years characterized the performance of this old Government servant's work in this Department. I have known him since 1849, and have never found a Native Clerk so marvellously conversant with the rules and Regulations of the Service, or more ready and willing to do any work entrusted to him. Signed J. Gilliland Colonel 19 May 1876. Controller of Military Accts. ditto. Signed J. Gilliland Colonel 11 April 1877. Controller of Military Accts. I have known M.C. Mooney many years - and during the last 6 months it has again come more immediately under my notice - His zeal which has been already certified is not abated and he has as of old most efficiently aided me by his extensive and minute knowledge of Regulation in the particular duties which pertain to him in this office.
