Gratuity.—Granting a compensation gratuity of Rs. 30 to C. Chinnan Chetti, late Additional Gumastah, No. 1, Revenue Survey Party.

Reference. Official memo No. 88 dated the 8th Instt. from the Under Secretary to Government, pension deptt. Calling for certain information in Connection with the application for Gratuity on behalf of C. Chinnan Chetti late addl. Gumastah of No 1 Party.

The applicant was one of the members of the Permanent Establishment borne on the Strength of No 1 Rev Survey and paid out of the Budget Grant sanctioned in each year for the Expenditure of No 1 Rev Survey. He being then a Supernumerary to the number allowed for the grade, the name of the applicant was entered under the additional Establishment, which was in reality a portion of the permanent Establishment. In the Survey Department a discretionary power has been delegated to the Superintdt Rev Survey & officers incharge to entertain such number of men as he or they may think it necessary to meet the requirements of a Party, as long as the Expenditure of the party does not exceed the allotment Sanctioned. The number allotted to each grade in the scale, which is only nominal, was therefore not strictly adhered to. And therefore all men whether entered in permanent or additional establishment are equally eligible to have the benefit of leave & Pension Rules.

2. Under the authority of the Supt. Rev Survey conveyed in his letter No. $\frac{2387}{268}$ dated 10th September 1874, the services of the applicant together with many others were dispensed with to meet a deficit in the Budget Grant allotted for the year 1874-75, and the appointment was therefore done away with in the case of this individual only. The individual was not re-entertained as his services were not subsequently required.

SIR,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No 88 dated the 8th Ultimo, calling for certain information in connection with the application for gratuity on behalf of C. Submitted to Government with the remark that, from the explanation furnished by the Acting Deputy Superintendent, Revenue Survey, No. 1 Party, it would appear that Chinnan Chetti was not engaged on the understanding that his appointment in the Survey Department was only temporary, or that he would be liable to be discharged after a short period of service. The applicant's services may therefore be viewed as quasi-permanent entitling him to Gratuity under the provisions of Section 32 (a) of the Civil Pension Code; but the question whether or not a Gratuity can be granted to a person whose services are dispensed with by the Head of a Department, without Government sanction, to meet a deficit in the Budget Grant is one which should apparently be submitted to the Government of India.
