Deposition given on solemn affirmation on the 6th November 1880 before the Collector and Magistrate of the Vizagapatam District by Chettu Potanna, 2nd Class Constable No 900.

I was appointed a cutwal Peon on Rs 4 a month and sent to the Kotapalem station of the Cheepurupalli Thana by Assistant Collector Mr. Foord in 1846 when Mr. Smollett was Collector. I had ever since served in that station on the same pay until 1861, in which year I was made a 2nd Class Constable. During the whole of my employment as cutwal peon I was never fined, suspended, nor otherwise punished. I can prove the truth of the above statement by the testimony of Vilapu Appalaswamy and Yeluru Gopaludu, who knew me when I was serving.

I have heard this deposition read over to me, and find it correct.

Deposition given on solemn affirmation on the 6th November 1880 before the Collector and Magistrate of the Vizagapatam District by Nila Appalaswami 1st Witness on behalf of Chittu Pottanna, 2d Class Constable No. 900-

I know Chittu Potanna - I do not know when he entered the Government service, but I remember it was in 1858. When my maternal uncle went to Kotapalem as Cutwal peon, I accompanied him to that place, and there knew that the said Potanna was serving as a Cutwal peon. Potanna used to receive a monthly salary of Rs. 4. I have not heard of his having ever been fined, suspended, or punished in any other way. I know his case well, because he was with my maternal uncle from 1858 until he was employed in the new Police in 1861.

I have heard this deposition read over to me, and find it correct
