From the Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India ; dated 26th January 1869, No. 48.

I have considered in Council your letter, dated 24th November 1868, No. 309, forwarding, with the expression of your concurrence, a recommendation from the Government of Bombay that book-binders permanently employed in Government Establishments should be admitted to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules. I sanction this proposal.

Ordered that a copy of the above be sent to the Government of Bombay for information with reference to the letter from this Department, No. 3249, dated 24th November 1868.

Ordered, also, that a copy of the same be communicated for information to the Home, Foreign, Military, and Public Works Departments ; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab ; the Chief Commissioners of Oudh, Central Provinces, British Burmah, and Mysore ; the Resident at Hyderabad ; the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the several Accountants General and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge ; the Mint Master, Calcutta ; the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta ; the Director General of the Post Office of India.

Ordered further that the same be published in the Gazette of India.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Additional Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 15th February 1872, No. 1150 :—

The Governor-General in Council has had his attention drawn to the Order of the Government of Madras, in the Pension Department, No. 228, dated 4th August 1869, declaring that Moochees in public offices who are required to bind books in addition to their ordinary duties are, if permanently employed, and in receipt of pay exceeding Rupees 10 per mensem, eligible for pension on the superior scale. His Excellency in Council desires me to say that, in accordance with the Orders of the Secretary of State, admitting bookbinders to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, only those persons can be admitted whose professional employment is purely bookbinding and connected therewith. A Moochee who occasionally does bookbinding in addition to his other work is not a bookbinder permanently employed, and accordingly he has no claim to be regarded a superior servant.

2. I am to request that the Orders of the Government of Madras of 4th August 1869 may be withdrawn.

ORDER THEREON, 9th March 1872, No. 93.

Read the following letter from E. GIBSON, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, in charge of South Canara, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Mangalore, 7th October 1874, No. 2083:—

I have the honor to submit, for consideration, together with the papers as per margin, an application from Balthazaar Fernandez, late Sea Customs Assistant Superintendent of Barcoor, applying for increased pension.

1. Petition, with enclosure, dated 11th February 1874.
2. Copy of B. Fernandez's Service Register.
3. Copy of G.O., No. 78, 4th March 1851.
4. Do. ,, 440, 25th August 1873.

2. The petitioner's whole service eligible to pension amounts to twenty-nine years, one month, and twenty-nine days, but Government disallowed five years, five months, and two days and sanctioned only a pension of Rupees 10 instead of Rupees 15, to which he would have been otherwise entitled, on the ground that a period of more than one year had elapsed between his resignation and reappointment on a permanent establishment.

3. Petitioner urges that he obtained employment before the expiry of one year after his resignation; that the temporary establishment upon which he was entertained became permanent subsequently; and that under Rule I., Section 17, and Rule I., Section 45, of the Civil Pension Code, the period disallowed counts towards pension.

4. The Maramut Establishment, upon which petitioner was entertained, appears to have been revised and made permanent under G.O., No. 78, of 4th March 1851, the last incumbent who succeeded to the post held by petitioner having been confirmed under that authority.

5. I consider therefore the petitioner's claim to pension, equal to one-half of his pay, is valid, and recommend that, if the Board agree with me, his case may be submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

Official Memorandum.

The undersigned has the honor to request that the services of Mr. B. Fernandez prior to the 30th June 1846, as shown in the accompanying application register, may be verified and their character stated, and that the cause of losing his employment on the 14th February 1847 may also be given.

(By order.)

To the Accountant-General.

From R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Honorable D. F. CARMICHAEL, Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Fort St. George, 13th July 1875, No. 236.

Audit Department.

With reference to official memorandum, No. 1, of 27th January 1875, from the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, I have the honor to state that the services of Mr. B. Fernandez as Book-binder from 1st January 1841 to 31st May 1846 have been verified from the records of the Superintendent, Nugger Division, Mysore.

2. From the enclosed reply memorandum from the Collector of South Canara it would appear that the establishment of the Superintendent of the Nugger Division, Mysore, in which Mr. Fernandez is said to have served, was a Government establishment, and that it was paid from Imperial revenues, the case falling under Section 25 of the Civil Pension Code.

3. From the enclosed copy of certificate from the Superintendent, Nugger Division, dated 18th October 1850, it will be seen that the man was a Book-binder and "in addition to his own business he assisted the English Writers," hence the entry in the History of his services as "Book-binder and Copyist in the English Writers' Department;" but service as Book-binder previous to 1872 was not held qualifying for superior pension or gratuity though it has been so held subsequently.

4. It will also be seen from the enclosed papers that Mr. Fernandez, who was on leave at the time, was discharged from service on the 1st June 1846 for not returning to duty from leave. But in the enclosed copy of certificate above referred to it is stated that the man "was permitted (in June 1846) to resign his situation in order to return to his own country."

5. Mr. Fernandez was employed as an extra Maramut Gumastah on the establishment of the Collector of South Canara from 16th August 1846 to 14th February 1847, and on the latter date the extra work having ceased he was left without employment, hence the break from 15th February 1847.

Order thereon, 28th September 1875, No. 561.

His Excellency the Governor in Council observes from the report of the Accountant-General that some doubt exists as to whether Mr. Fernandez resigned or was discharged "for not returning to duty from leave." He would be willing to give Mr. Fernandez the benefit of the doubt, but as on the 30th of June 1846, the date of his resignation or discharge, service as Book-binder was not eligible, Mr. Fernandez cannot now be permitted to claim a benefit subsequently granted (vide Section 5, Civil Pension Code, 2nd Edition). His service as Book-binder must therefore be treated as inferior.

2. The Accountant-General appears to be in error in stating that "service as Book-binder previous to 1872 was not held qualifying." This class of servants appears to have been admitted to the benefits of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules in January 1869 (vide Government of India Resolution, Financial Department, dated 2nd March 1869, No. 1407, recorded in G.O., Pension Department, dated 6th April 1869, No. 123).

Read the following papers:—

From the Acting Collector of Malabar, dated 22nd May 1875.
" Accountant-General, dated 1st July 1875, No. 20.

ORDER THEREON, 29th September 1875, No. 563.

The service of Mr. Anthony Francis Pereira extends over no less a period than fifty-eight years, eight months, and twenty-four days. Of this, forty-three years, nine months, and nineteen days were passed as a bookbinder, on pay exceeding 10 Rupees, but on the 1st of May 1860 on the general revision of Revenue Establishment he became a Muchi.

2. Service as Muchi is classed as inferior by Section 38 of the Civil Pension Code (2nd Edition), and at the time when the applicant's appointment was converted into that of Muchi bookbinders were not eligible (or "inferior" servants). Subsequently, however, the latter were admitted to the benefit of the Pension Rules, so that had the applicant remained as bookbinder and not had his post altered he would now have been clearly entitled to a pension on the superior scale. Moreover had he remained a bookbinder until after the admission of such servants to the Pension Rules he would, under Section 64 of the Civil Pension Code, 2nd Edition, have had the option of counting towards a pension on the superior scale so much of his service as was eligible or superior, but as he became a Muchi prior to such admission it is doubtful whether his service as bookbinder may under Section 5, Civil Pension Code, be now treated as superior.

Government of India, Financial Notification, dated 2nd March 1869, No. 1047.

3. A reference on this point will be made to the Government of India, and, in the mean time, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. A. F. Pereira the invalid pension of Rupees (4) four per mensem, payable from the 6th April 1875, which is strictly admissible under Sections 49, 63 (c), and 64 of the Civil Pension Code, 2nd Edition.

(Signed) L. A. CAMPBELL,
Under Secretary to Government.

To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Ootacamund, 29th September 1875, No. 564.

In forwarding the accompanying case of Mr. A. F. Pereira, I am directed to inquire whether, as a general rule, applicants for pension or gratuity part of whose service has been passed as "bookbinder," but prior to the admission of such servants to the Uncovenanted Pension Rules, may be allowed to claim that such service shall now be treated as "superior."

2. Should the reply to this reference be in the negative, I am to request that the case of Mr. A. F. Pereira may then be dealt with on its merits, and that in view of his unusually lengthy and good service and very advanced age (upwards of seventy-six years) he may be granted a pension in excess of the 4 Rupees per mensem to which alone he will be strictly entitled.

In reply to your letter, No. 564, dated 29th September 1875, I am directed to say that the rule declaring service as Bookbinder to be superior service in respect of the Pension Rules, applies retrospectively to service rendered before the rule was prescribed. Mr. A. F. Pereira is therefore entitled to count as superior all his previous service as Bookbinder, provided that his professional occupation was bookbinding and that he was not a mere Daftari.
