GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

21st January 1881, No. 37.

Pension.

Read the following paper :—

From A. C. TUPP, Esq, Officiating Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 14th January 1881, No. J.A.E.—517.

Treasury Account Department.

With reference to the letter from the Government of India, embodied in G.O., No. 209, dated the 21st April 1874, Pension Department, sanctioning the grant of a pension of Rs. 4 a-month to the family of Veerasami, subject to reconsideration on the death or marriage of either the widow or daughter of the deceased, I have the honor to report that Moothammall, the widow of the deceased Veerasami, who has been drawing the above-mentioned pension, has intimated to this office that her daughter has been married, and she requests that the payment of the pension may be continued to her—vide copy of her petition, dated the 22nd December 1880, enclosed. I beg to submit the case for such orders as the Right Honorable the Governor in Council may deem necessary.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From MOOTHAMMALL, Family Pension Widow, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 22nd December 1880.

I, the Moothammall, family pension widow, beg most respectfully to bring the following few lines to your honor's kind consideration.

2. After the death of my husband, I was pensioned by the Government, which act of kindness maintained me and my daughter. My daughter was given in marriage about three months ago, and she is under my guardianship, as she is now young. If she were to get her puberty, she would be sent to her husband's place. I have no other means to live except this pension. I, the poor widow, who rely upon this pension, beg most respectfully your honor to grant me the pension.

3. The Government ordered me previously to inform the time of my daughter's marriage, and that my pension would have been observed by them, so that I have informed them to your honor.

ORDER THEREON, 21st January 1881, No. 37.

The full pension, Rs. 4, will be continued to the widow of Veerasami.
