GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

26th November 1880, No. 2,735 W.

General.
Establishment.

Read the following paper:—

No. 125. From F. N. THOROWGOOD, Esq., M. INST. C. E., Superintendent of Madras Harbour Works, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Madras, 22nd November 1880, No. 56 W.

I DEEPLY regret to have to report a most distressing accident which occurred on these works yesterday morning, and by which seven lives were lost.

2. Throughout the night of the 20th and in the early morning of the 21st instant, there was a heavy sea running from east and south-east, the waves breaking with considerable force over the south pier and washing away about 900 feet of rails.

3. While the sea was heavily breaking Mr. J. T. Duffy, Foreman at the south pier, endeavoured to travel out on a trolly with the object of seeing if all was secure. He was accompanied by Mr. H. Patching, European Diver, and the trolly was propelled by nine natives. It was perfectly impossible for them to have got within 1,500 feet of the south pier end, as the waves were coming over to a height of 7 and 8 feet above the blocks.

4. They had not got more than 600 feet from the commencement of the blockwork when a wave appeared which induced the men to leave the trolly and cling to the rails; but, as the wave broke, it swept away the trolly and the whole of the eleven men at once.

5. Four natives, who were of the number washed overboard, could swim well, and they got safely to shore with the help of lines thrown from the south pier. The remaining seven were not seen again, with the exception of Mr. Duffy, who kept himself above water for a short time.

6. The names of those who have come to so lamentable an end through over anxiety to do their duty are—

Mr. James T. Duffy,	Foreman at south pier.
,, H. Patching,	European Diver.
Murugasen,	Cooly.
Chengalroyen,	,,
David,	,,
Poonen,	,,
Chokalingum,	,,

7. The loss of Mr. Duffy is particularly to be deplored, as no one could have borne a higher character for steady hard work, and a wish to do everything that lay in his power to forward the progress of the works. He was engaged by the late Mr. James May when the works originally started, and has borne a uniform high character for the past five years. He came over from Kurrachee, and now leaves a widow and four children in Madras.

8. Mr. H. Patching had been on the works two years and was a hardworking steady diver, whose loss will be much felt. He also leaves a widow. I have not yet been able to ascertain whether the natives who are lost have left families behind them or not.

9. I trust that His Grace the Governor in Council will be disposed to consider favorably such proposals for gratuity or other assistance to the unfortunate survivors as I shall shortly advance, the charge to be borne by the Harbour Works Funds.

10. I should state that up to the time of writing no bodies have been found.

No. 126. ORDER THEREON, 26th November 1880, No. 2,735 W.

HIS GRACE the Governor in Council regrets to hear of the unfortunate accident reported in this letter, by which seven lives were lost on the Harbour Works, on the morning of the 21st November.

2. The proposals about to be submitted for gratuity or other assistance to the families of the deceased men will be awaited.

NOVEMBER.
Nos. 125-126.

Accident in the Harbour at Madras.—Expressing regret at the — by which seven lives were lost, and awaiting proposals for gratuity to the families of the deceased men.

Copy of a letter from the Superintendent Madras Harbour Works to the Secretary to Govt Pub: Works Department D/7th December 1880 No 66 W.

I now have the honor to submit certain proposals regarding compensation to the families of those unfortunate men, who lost their lives in doing what they believed to be their duty, on November 21st which proposals Govt have been so good as to await / G. O. No 2735 W D/26th November /80/

2. I have, since addressing Government last on this subject, made personal inquiries into the circumstances of all those families that I can get at, and I think, considering the circumstances under which the lives were lost, and that nothing but excessive zeal in the public service lead the men into their danger, I may ask for a liberal sum to be awarded to their families, and I therefore propose an amount equal to six months pay for the widows of the two Europeans.

[illegible]

3. Mr James Duffy, of whose services I cannot speak too highly nor can I possibly replace them, came from Kurrachee on an agreement with the late Mr James May, the first Superintendent of these works. His pay was charged entirely to the works, and he was entitled to make and be paid for overtime. In 1879 his agreement expired and I renewed it with some differences. He used, with overtime, to make sometimes Rs. 230 to 270 per mensem. I stopped the counting of overtime and ranked him with the other English Foremen at a regular pay of Rs. 275, with a maximum of Rs 300 regardless of the hours he worked. He had just reached his maximum rate on October 1st and was drawing from that time Rs 300 a month, or the same as the Foreman Diver and Foreman Engineer. For his widow and 4 Children I would therefore propose a sum of Rs. 1,800.

4. Mr H. E. Patching, was one of my most trustworthy divers, for he was a thoroughly steady sober and respectable man. He had not been very long at diving and had not got up to the full pay of a diver, but he was a zealous and careful workman. His pay was Rs 135 per mensem and he leaves a widow who supports a blind mother, and who was dependent entirely upon her husband. H. Patching was from London but his widow is an East Indian, born in Madras. In this case six months pay would be Rs 810.

5. In the case of the five natives who were paid at the rate of 4 annas a day, but who nearly always worked for more than the regular number of hours, I would take their pay at the rate of Rs 12 per mensem and propose Rs 70 as the gratuity for each case.

6. The total of these amounts is then

	Rs
In the case of Mr J. J. Duffy	1,800
" " H. E. Patching	810.
In the cases of, Chengalroyen, Ponnen, David, Chockalingum & Murugasen each Rs 70	350
Total Rs	2,960

7. This is, I am aware, a very large sum to ask for, but I think that considering the exceptionally painful circumstances of the case, I am not exceeding my duty in proposing it.

With

8. With regard to the future conduct of the work, I must necessarily put up with much inconvenience for a time owing to the loss of Mr James Duffy and Mr Patching, but I shall not ask for any special aid nor shall I take on any new hand in Mr Duff's place. But I shall make a transfer of two of the working staff, which while satisfying and promoting the individuals, will effect a saving of Rs 200 per mensem on the works. I have every confidence in the efficiency of this proposed arrangement, because I know the men concerned.

9. The filling up of a vacant place amongst the divers is always troublesome, but unhappily it is of very frequent occurrence and is only a question of time and discipline.

10. Whatever His Grace the Governor in Council may think fit to sanction in the way of Compensation, whether the whole of what I have proposed or only a part, I would suggest that it be charged as a separate item to the sum allowed for "Contingencies" in the Estimate for the works, which can well bear this charge.
