GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 9th November 1880, No. 5278.

Certificate and report from the Assistant Accountant-General, to the Acting Under Secretary to Government, Pension department, dated Fort St. George, 19th February 1881, No. A.D.J.—1514.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 2 years and 10 months, and that a superannuation gratuity not exceeding Rs. 13-5-0 per mensem, equal to two months' pay multiplied by the fraction $\frac{2}{30}$, is admissible under sections 65, 68 (a) and the proviso of section 70 of the Civil Pension Code (4th edition). The calculations have been duly verified.

2. In accordance with rule 3-A, under section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to section 22 of the code. The establishment of the School of Industrial Arts was revised by the Government of India in their order, dated the 12th January 1875, embodied in G.O., No. 36, dated the 9th February 1875. But apparently no effect appears to have been given to it till it was again revised by Government in their Order, No. 401, dated the 29th October 1877, in which provision for the appointment of a drawing master on pay of Rs. 100 was not made. This appointment was, however, sanctioned in G.O., No. 441, dated the 24th November 1877, Educational. But as it was not stated that the appointment should be received as a temporary one, it has been considered as permanent, entitling the holder thereof to pension or gratuity, as the case may be.

3. The Director of Public Instruction, in his reply to this office letter, No. 631-A.D.K., dated the 29th November 1880, proposes the grant of a compensation gratuity. This would appear done from a misapprehension, and accordingly this office has recommended the applicant for the grant of a superannuation gratuity in consideration of his age being 60.

From Mr. J. J. Fonceca, dated 18th April 1881.

Order—dated 9th May 1881, No. 438, Pension.

Under sections 65, 68 (a) and the proviso of section 70 of the Civil Pension Code (4th edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Mr. J. J. Fonceca, late Assistant Drawing Master in the School of Arts, a superannuation gratuity of Rs. (13-5-0) thirteen and Annas five, equal to two months' pay multiplied by the fraction $\frac{2}{30}$, payable at Madras, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of two years and ten months.

Sir,

In returning your letter dated 29th November 1880 No. $\frac{A.D.K}{631}$, I have the honor to enclose copy of certain correspondence which relates to the services of Mr. J. J. Fonceca, late Drawing Master, School of Industrial Arts, Madras, and which gives the information required in paras 3, 4, 6 and 8 of your letter. The explanation required in para: 13 is inserted in the application re-transmitted.

2. With reference to para: 23 I beg to state that Mr. Fonceca's appointment was sanctioned in G. O. dated 24th November 1877 No. 441+ and that from G. O. dated 9th February 1875 No. 36+, it will be

+ Copies forwarded with a request that they may be returned.

be observed that the Government of India sanctioned a revised scale of Establishment for the School of Arts, chargeable to Provincial Funds. As the place of Instructor of the Artistic Branch was not filled up, a Drawing master was entertained in 1877. In the Registers in my office, prepared from the vouchers in your office, Mr. Fonceca is shown to have been drawing Rs. 100 a month from Provincial Funds as on a permanent establishment and his name is also entered in the list of Educational Officers published by this Department every year. The non-submission of annual returns from the School of Arts is probably due to their not having been called for.

3. As regards paras. 24 and 25, I beg to remark that the gratuity recommended on behalf of Mr. Fonceca is of the nature of "Compensation" referred to in Clause (a) of Section 68 of the Civil Pension Code.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward you a letter from Mr J. Fonceca the Drawing Master of this School intimating that in consequence of his blindness he is unable to continue the duties of Drawing master.

Mr Fonceca is the only professional artist in Madras and as such I trust that the Government when accepting his resignation will take this fact into consideratio His practice has never been good and now that the calamity of blindness has overtaken him he will be without any means of support. He was drawing master of this School from the 1st May 1877 to 28d July/77 and again from 1st Nov: 1877 to the present time

I deferred forwarding on Mr Foncecas letter until I could name some competent man to supply his place. I am happy to state that I have now obtained the services of Mr J. Jupe an old pupil of Dyces.- I forwarded a set of Examination papers in the second degree for model drawing and he passed the test without an error.- I trust you will permit me to entertain his services at once.

(through the Accountant General)

SIR,

In forwarding an application for Gratuity on behalf of Mr. J J Fonceca, late Assistant Drawing master in the School of Arts, I have the honor to state that Mr. Chisholm speaks of Mr. Fonceca as "the only professional artist in Madras" and as such he trusts that "Government when accepting his resignation will take the fact into consideration." Mr. Fonceca has been compelled to resign his appointment owing to his having lost his sight.

2. Mr Fonceca was employed from the 1st May to 28th July 1877 when he resigned; but he joined the School again on the 1st November 1877 and remained in it till the 31st August last; so that his actual services, entitling him to a Gratuity, extend over a period of 2 years and 10 months.

Under these circumstances, I beg to Recommend that sanction may be accorded for the gratuity now applied

The Establishment of the School of Industrial Arts was revised by the Govt. of India in their Order dated the 12th January/75 embodied in G.O. No 36 dated the 9th February/75. But apparently no effect appears to have been given to it till it was again revised by Govt. in their Order No 401 dated the 29th Octr/77 in which provision for the appointment of a Drawing Master on pay of Rs. 100 was not made. This appointment was however sanctioned in G.O. No 1141 dated the 24th November/77 Educational.
