3. It is observed that the amount of the average salary for the last 5 years of Constable Mahomed Huggy as entered in the register submitted by the Police Superintt. differs from that calculated by the Inspector General the calculation of the former Officer seems correct & pension disallowing two pies from the full amount admissible to him is granted.–

Note

Orders requested as to whether the Honorable Mr Hudleston's instructions in respect to all pies below one Anna to be disallowed, should have effect in the present case and in cases where the amount of pension is still smaller.–

It is submitted that Hon'ble W. Hudleston's instructions are for universal application, and should be applied in the present instance
