GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

12th May 1881, No. 460.

Pensions.

Read the following paper:—

From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 17th February 1881, No. 634.

I have the honor to report that a special bonus of Rs. 210 has been sanctioned by Government in their Order, No. 940, dated the 18th September 1880, Pension Department, to Y. Appadorai Mudali, one of the members of the Account Branch of the Public Works Department.

2. Appadorai Mudali is not one of those who retired under the special terms of Government of India, No. 2079, dated the 31st July 1879, but one who retired under the ordinary rules of the Civil Pension Code. A special bonus of three months' pay was, however, sanctioned to him under a different Resolution of the Government of India (Government of India, No. 27-A.E., dated 12th February 1880, embodied in G.O., No. 370 W., dated the 16th idem, Public Works Department).

3. One of the conditions stipulated by the Government of India for the grant of this bonus is, "If any of the men retired under these terms are hereafter admitted into the Government service, they should repay the bonus of three months' pay now sanctioned, and their future service for pension should be regulated by the rules contained in the Civil Pension Code."

4. Appadorai Mudali is now re-employed as Local Fund Auditor on pay of Rs. 50 per mensem in Chingleput District, and he claims the bonus sanctioned to him on the ground that his appointment under Local Fund Board is a "temporary one for the present."

5. The question whether the appointment of Local Fund Auditor should be viewed as permanent or temporary has not been settled by Government as yet.

6. Appadorai Mudali is a pensioner and draws a pension of Rs. 25-5-3 a-month. If he retires finally from service under Local Fund Board even after completing twenty-five years' service, he would not be entitled to a pension of more than 25 rupees (moiety of his present pay), which is less than the pension which he is now drawing after retirement from service in the Imperial Public Works Department.

7. Pending orders of Government, I have ordered that the payment of the bonus sanctioned to Appadorai Mudali should be withheld.

ORDER THEREON, 12th May 1881, No. 460.
