Order to the Sahibdar of Serikolar.

The depositions taken by you, as ordered, from the peons Fatha Beg, and Asaachella Saik of Kandachipuram taluk regarding the robbery committed on Janna Pathi Mudali &c. of Kaliaam poondi in the limits of that taluk and sent with your auzi dated 11th August 1849, have been perused by me. There are 2 peons and 5 Taliares attached to the said taluk, and although one of the peons should be at the station always and patrol the roads with the aid of the Taliares and thus prevent crime, they have not done so, and it is through their carelessness that such daring robbery was committed in broad day light in the vicinity of the taluk. The said peons are therefore suspended for 2 months from this date. You will nominate competent men for the vacancies. You will inform them that they should try and find out the robbers within that time and final orders will be passed afterwards.

Order to the Sahibdar of Sirikondar.

You are aware that the Taluk peons Sattar Beg and Asoona chella Naik were suspended by Sakeed No 79 of 18 August for 2 months for neglect of duty in the matter of the robbery committed on Ganapathi Mudali and others of Kalia: nampanudi. As the suspension they have already undergone is a sufficient punishment, they are restored from today. You will enter their names in the pay abstract accordingly and dispense with the services of the acting men.

Moreover you will warn all the peons of your Taluk that if they are found guilty of even a slight offence after having once suffered suspension they will be dismissed without fail. You should report such cases in detail in your auzi.

15 December 1849. Signed A. L. R. M. D.
