The accompanying original Pension G. C. No 491 d/ 28th May 1881 with all its papers was given to the Financial Departt. for Finl. C. No 1315 of '82 in compliance to Memo (herewith sent) of that Dept. d/ 18th May 1882. The G. C. and its papers were returned about the 1st Instant with the exception of the Register of Application and the Medl. Certificate; which fact was then and there brought to the notice of the Clerk who returned the papers.

It was also then pointed out that the cord with which the file was loosely looped before being handed to the Finl. Dept, was broken. Thinking however that the papers alluded to might have been mislaid a close search, both in the Accountant was made for the last 13 days; but to no effect. On asking Mr. Subrayulu that they might have been

Sir,

With reference to your lette of the 24th. Ultimo No. 222, I have the honor to inform you that soon after K. Ramdas Pantulu was ordered by Government to be reduc to the grade of a Tahsildar, no Tahsildars post was vacant to be given to him. The Tahsildar of Sarvasiddhi was therefore taken as Huzur Sheristadar and his plac given to Ramadas Pantulu and the latter was thus given a chance of getting the privilege leave which he was in need of and of having an appointment so that there might be no break in the continuity of his service until the intended post of Tahsildar was selected for him by the Board of Revenue. The Government Confirmed the appointment Vide Copies of Boards Proceedings and G. O. enclosed.

2. The appointment of Ramadas Pantulu as Tahsildar of Sarvasiddhi is thus a permanent one not acting as entered in the Service Register.

3. Ramadas Pantulu himself Counted Service as the Sarvasiddhi Tahsildar from 1st to 8th April 1880. He never joined the appointment but remained on privilege leave.

4. Ramadas Pantulu being now absent in Ganjam I have requested the Collector of that District to procure the required affidavit from him and send it direct to you to save delay.
